against his majesty, and the United Provinces. Under delired attornies to take notice, that they were bound of mind which is the brightest plume in the circumstances of this wanton and unprovoked ag- to give their clients the best advice in their power, cap. I shall therefore, with as much brevio gression, his majesty has taken the necessary steps to maintain the honour of his grown, and to vindicate the rights of his people; and his majetty relies with house of commons, and on the zealous exertions of a the costs, all such attornies would be compelled to pay legion to elect a pay-master, in the room brave and loyal people, in profecuting a just and necesfary war, and endeavouring, under the bleffing of providence, to oppose an effectual barrier to the farther progress of a system which strikes at the security and peace of all independent nations, and is pursued in open defiance of every principle of moderation, good faith, humanity and justice.

"In a cause of such general concern, his majesty has every reason to hope for the cordial co-operation of those powers, who are united with his majesty by the ties of alliance, or who feel an interest in preventing the extension of anarchy and confusion, and in contributing to the fecurity and tranquillity of G. R." Mr. Secretary Dundas moved, "That this house do to-morrow take into consideration his majesty's most gracious message."-Ordered.

The following is a copy of a letter fent to the right honourable, the lord mayor on Saturday last, by the right honourable lord Grenville.

WHITEHALL, February 9. " My lord, I have the honour to acquaint your lordship, that it appears by the accounts received this morning from France, that war against Great-Britain and Holland was decreed in the national convention on the 1st instant.

. I request that your lordship will take the proper measures to make public this intelligence.

GRENVILLE." (Signed)

Europe.

Right honourable lord mayor. A very strong sleet for the Mediterranean is ordered to be equipped with all possible expedition, another goes to the West-Indies with as much haste as possi-

A very large number of cruisers are ordered into channel service directly, to protect trade and our sea coast and subordinate ports from the insults of privateers, &cc.

The particular ships which are to compose lord naval and military service. Hood's iquadron for the Mediterranean station are all nearly ready for sea. His lordship will go out under a special commission, by virtue of which he will be enabled to take the command of any foreign ships of war to act in conjunction with the Buitish sleet.

Letters of marque and reprilal against the French will be forthwith granted from the board of admiralty, to fuch merchants or others who chuse to apply for them.

The following is a copy of a letter from the earl of Chatham to the lord mewor, in answer to a requisition made by his lord up on behalf of the merchants of London:

" ADMIRALTY, February 9. My lord, I have received your lordship's letter, and beg to assure your lordship that no time will be lost in taking the most effectual measures (which our force at present will permit to give notice of hostilities to our homeward bound trade; and to direct theun, as proposed by your lordship, to make for the ports of Falmouth or Plymouth, and there wait for convoy. I have the honour to be your lordship's very obedient humble servant,

" CHATHAM." (Signed)

The right honourable the lord mayor. It was this day reported on the Royal Exchange, that one of his majelty's frigates had been taken and carried into Sicily by two French privateers, but no other particulars were come to hand.

Dutch territories.

in every generous bosom, by the sufferings of the duke of Tuscany has received, with many marks of royal family of France, it is the miserable want and esteem, M. de la Flotte, as resident at his court, from difficulties in which they are now involved: The the French republic. In the grand duke's note on presented, that out of twenty four shirts which her fon wears, nine are in rags, and the rest too short for him. She requests a supply of fifteen new shirts.

Feb. 18. Amuerdam is in a state of perfect tranquillity, and as builly engaged in its commercial concerns as if Damourier and his army were on the coast of Africa.

Extract of a letter from Ventoo, February 1.

The French advanced posts at Kaldekenkin retreated in the night of the 26th to Brancht, and afterwards to Vlodop.

46 Yesterday in the afternoon a corps of about 1000 French arrived on the left shore of the Mease, not far from this city, and were foon after reinforced by several large bodies coming from Thorn. They seem to be determined to establish a considerable force to defend the banks of the Meale, and to dispute the passage of this river with the Prussians."

JI I V E R P O O L, February 18:

Lord Kenyon, on Saturday felunight, laid down an important rule for the regulation of the conduct of attornies .- His lordship said, " he verily believed, that brother, I am impelled to give you a particular account Bay, St. Mary's county, to the care of Mr. John the majority of attornies were honourable men, and of a dispute, which, though it ended in his death, Heard. of service to the community, but there were many served to shew that he possessed a soul, which would undless pretentions, actually declared war others who were the greatest pests to society." He and to conduct the causes intrusted to them as if they ble, describe to you the manner in which were their own. If any attorney, instead of honestly and fairly advising his clients, advised them to prosecute groundless or frivolous actions, for the sake of issued an order, directing the officers of the expences themselves."

> PHILADELPHIA, April 9. The schooner Fredericksburg Packet, arrived here yesterday from Malaga.

Captain Anderson put into Gibraltar on the 23d February, where he received the following advices: That the French republic had declared war against Great-Britain and Holland-that the late queen of France had been tried and executed at Paris about the 10th of February, and that the Algerines had declared war against Holland, Denmark, and Sweden.

Several British ships of war were cruising in the Streights, to protect the English and Dutch ships from the French and Algerine cruilers, and to convoy them into Gibraltar, where three Dutch thips had already Extract of a letter from Frederica, (St. Simon's, Georgia).

"The Indians have just killed two persons on St. Mary's, and two on the Altamaha, and carried off a number of hories. Large parties of the Creeks were hunting last week within this state, but no mischief was done by them. There are a number of families here that have made their retreat from the hostile Indians, and families are constantly passing from the Letters from London, by the packet, fay-that lord Hood is appointed to command the British fleet ordered to the Mediterranean, and lord Howe to command the channel fleet.

The duke of Clarence is created an admiral, to ferve under lord Howe. The duke of York is to command the Hanoverian forces destined to act with the combined army against France. Prince Erhest (4th fon) to serve under the duke of York. The prince of Wales is appointed to the command of the 10th regiment of dragoons.

Five of his Britannic majesty's sons are now in the

The armaments go on with great vigour, but no press had taken place.

In London wheat was 5/7 per bushel, and in the counties 4/11.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Dublin to a merchant in this city, dated the 30th January, received by the packet.

"The catholics, I am happy to inform you, are to be partakers of our excellent constitution without any exception. On this occasion every liberal heart seems to be filled with joy."

GUILLOTINE.

The following is a description of the fatal machine by which the late king of France suffered, and which takes its name from that of the perion who brought it into ule.

It is in form of a painter's easel, and about ten feet high; at four feet from the bottom is a cross-bar, on which the sufferer lays his head, which is kept down by another bar placed above. In the inner edges of the frame are grooves, in which is placed a sharp axe, with a vast weight of lead, supported at the summit by a peg, to which is fastened a cord, which the executioner cutting, the axe falls and beheads the prisoner. The sufferer is first tied to a plank, of about eighteen inches broad and an inch thick, standing upright, fastened with cords about the arms, belly and legs; this plank is about four feet long, and comes almost up to the chin; the executioner then lays him on Feb. 13. On Friday, Flint the messenger, arrived his belly on the bench, lifts up the upper part of his requested to make them known properly authenticated, in town, with dispatches from lord Auckland at the board, which receives his neck, adjusts his head, then and those indebted to make payment, to Hague. Very serious apprehensions are entertained of shuts the board, and pulls the string fastened to the the luccels of Dumourier in Holland, where the peg, at the top of the machine, which lifts up a factious party rather increases than diminishes; but, catch. The axe falls down, and the head, which is as yet, there is no news of his irruption into the off in a moment, is received in a basket ready for the urpose, as is the body in another basket.

Feb. 16. If any thing could add to the pity excited ... April 10. European papers mention, that the grand queen is unable to procure her son a shirt, without this subject, he promises the most perfect neutrality applying to the commons of Paris. She has lately re- and a defire to maintain a friendly understanding with the French nation.

When the last accounts left the continent of Europe, the duke of Brunswick lay ill of a bilious fever. His brother prince Frederick was to succeed him in command. The plan of the French generals appeared to be an instant incursion into Holland. General Miranda was to advance through Guelders, and general Dumourier through Gorkum; the two armies to unite in the province of Utrecht, where the people are ripe for a revolt from the Stadtholder."

ANNAPOLIS, April 18.

The following is a letter from captain Jacob Slough. of the 4th sub-legion U.S. to captain John Gassaway, respecting the duel between lieutenant Jeniser and lieutenant Gaffaway, which unfortunately ended in the death of the latter:

LEGION-VILLE, 27th March, 1793.

"The subject which I am about to address on, is | V | lin's warehouse, St. Mary's county. to me truly diffreshing, but in obedience to my own feelings, as well as the last request of your amiable

Price, promoted. Ineutenant Jenifer offered bi as a candidate for that office, and entities Clar Smith, was propoled by some of the officers, in position to him; your brother was from ill health confined to his hur at the time, consequently did not know that Mr. Smith was proposed. Mr. Jeniser the course of the day called at his hut, and foliand his vote, which your brother promised to give his the election took place that evening, and the vor were equally divided. The commander in the then ordered a new election to be held on the ever of the 21st. Your brother then told Mr. Jenifer the he did not conceive himself bound by the promise he made him, from the circumstance of his not know at the time he made the promile, that Mr. Smith in nomination, and that he would vote for Mr. Smith -This irritated Mr. Jeniser, who immediately calls him, a trifling puppy and no gentleman-You brother, as foon as the election was over, left room, and the day following challenged him.

"On the morning of the 23d they met, and after their seconds had measured the ground on which they were to fight, they agreed to advance and fire when they pleased; your brother after advancing three paces. fired, and missed, his antagonist then steped up within a yard of him, and thot him; the ball entered his right side and lodged in his back-bone; he was immediately brought home and every possible assistance given him, notwithstanding which, he died that night at 12 9'clock .- He retained his fenses till the last moment, and though he must have suffered the most excruciating pain, he bore it all like a soldier, without complaining. His remains were handsomely interred: fince when, a neat fence has been put round his grave. -He is universally lamented by all officers, and by none more than,

Sir, Your humble servant, IACOB SLOUGH, Captain 4th sub-legion, U.S."

At a stated communication of the Grand Lodge Maryland, held at Eafton, on the 11th day of April. A. L. 5793, the following brethren were duly ap. pointed to serve as officers, agreeable to the conflitution :

Doctor John Coats, R. W. G. M. HENRY WILMANS, Efq; R. W. D. G. M. JOHN ERSKINE, Efq; S. G. W. POSEPH CLARK, Eig; I. G. W. CHARLES GARBNER, Elq; G. S. DAVID KERR, Efq; G. T. The Rev. OWEN FITZGERALD M'GRATH, Chaplin.

Signed by order, CHARLES GARDNER, G. Secy. N. B. The next Grand communication will be held at Easton, on Thursday after the second Tuesday in September, A. L. 5793.

Agreeable to an order of the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, will be EXPOSED to PUBLIC SALE, on Monday the 6th of May next, at the late dwelling of Thomas Coares, on Greenbury's Point, for READY CASH,

A LL the personal property of Mr. Thomas COATES, deceased, consisting of his wearing apparel, one faddle horfe, a cart, feine, and fundry other artitles too tedious to mention.

All persons having claims against the said estate are JOHN MITCHELL, Administrator,

By virtue of a power from the orphans court of Samt Mary's county, will, on the fixth day of June next, if fair, if not the first fair day, for READY CASH, be Exposed, at Public Sale, to the highest bidder, on the plantation of the late Rev. George Goldie, deceased, on Saint Clement's Bay, in said county,

TIS STOCK, HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE. Also his valuable LIBRARY, confishing of a variety of theological and the late most efteemed writers.

LUKE WHITE BARBER, Executor. St. Mary's county, April 6, 1793.

BOARD,

By the day, week, &c. May be had at the house of the subscriber, in Charles-street, JAMES THOMAS.

Annapolis, April, 1793.

A LIST of LETTERS remaining in the Post-Office, Chaptico, which, if not taken up before the first day of July next, will be sent to the General Post Office as dead letters. R. RICHARD LLEWELLIN, near Llewer

Mr. William Evans, St. Mary's county. Mrs. Catharine Shorter, near the Head of Clement

Bternal Damnation Repre A SERMON, PREACHED by Rev. Mr. MLANE. In the CITY of ANNAPOLIS, 179

Price, one eighth of a dollar. THE time appointed by the COMMIS the federal buildings for making d affignments of lots in the city, of Washing tended to the 17th day of June next, whe attend at their office in George town for the and they request a meeting on that day prietors, especially those of Carrolisburgh burgh, to make divisions with them, afte the commissioners will divide agreeably to tions of the act of affembly concerning the Columbia and the city of Washington. prietors who have not already conveyed th in trust, are indulged with a further time June next, for executing deeds, afterward condemnation will issue under the above re-JOHN M. GANTT, CL.

RUFFIAN

A Genuine Country HOI TATILL cover mares this season, at Landing, for twenty shillings ea bushel of grain. RUFFIAN has but litt mend him, except the excellence of the which he was bred, and his ability to pa riding with greater eafe to the rider tha heretofore known in Maryland.

April 10, 1793.

To prevent inquiry, Rullian is a fine marked with white, rifing fix years old full fourteen and an half hands high. N barrels of corn, payable the first of Decem taken in lieu of the twenty shillings, by his
HENRY HALL D

A LIST of LETTERS remaining in t fice, Port-Tobacco, which, if not taker the first day of July next, will be sen neral Post-Office as dead letters. TOHN B. TURNER (3), James Yo smith, Mungor Mushett, William, Tobacco; William M. Wilkinson, Rich Francis Sewell, Charles county; Charles C Joseph Walker, jun. St. Mary's county

Clement's Bay; Nicholas More, or A Clarke, St. George county. ELEAZAR DAVIS, A LIST OF LETTE Remaining in the Post-Office, Annap if not taken up before the first day of will be sent to the General Post-Off

Letters :--TOHN ANDERSON, care of Mr. Annapolis. Mary Butler, care of J. T. Chase, Annapolis; Joseph Byus, Lower-Marlbon

Jeremiah T. Chase (2), John Callahan bald Chisholm, John Clarvoe, Abner H. Chew, Annapolis; Richard Chew, I captain David Carcaud, Patuxent. Gabriel Duvall (2), Dawson and Co. fon, Charles Datcher, Annapolis; C Difney, Anne-Arundel county. P. Fitzhugh (2), care of major. Dav

R. Fendall (2), Annapolis; Frazier and

Anne: Robert Freeland, near Hunting Forbes, Benedict; Parker Fowler, Mary John Gwinn (3), William Goldsborn John Gaffaway, Samuelt Green, John C napolis; Joshua Groves, care of John Point; William Graham, Lalvert county Alexander C. Hanton (4). Jacob J. H. care of George Mann, Samuel H. How Higgons, care of Mr. Nech, Annapolis. Executors of Daniel of St. Thomas cutors of Walter H. Jeniser, Rinaldo Jo Jenifet, Annapolis.

Thomas Larmon, Annapolis. John M'Dowell, G. D. Muller (2). dieton (2), Richard Maccubbin, Thoma Annapolis; Arthur Murray, care of Hunting-town. Monf. Puiverger Joseph, Annapolis. Captain James Perkins, Arundel cour

Allen Quynn, Annapolis. Henry Ridgely, Richard Ridgle, M board the Integrity, Annapolis. Philip Swarrur, Vachel Stevens, An Suthern, Kent-Island. Thomas Tucker, West river; Th

Herring Bay Thom. Williams (2). Thomas White croft, John C. Weems, John Welch William Woodward, fen. Anne Arunde Weems, Calvent county