on who is in-

no has the fole

TI II R. I IN. & Pebruary 16. inproached the city of Cagliari, began to bombard it, ordered for try ingelia. and were answered by a brisk firing of red hot balls. Williams maged in their maits and rigging, and one was for on impression having been made upon the fortress. the others the fire was extinguished. The bombs pro- day. by the militia, and loft upwards of 500 men.

DAVENTER, February 22. An English courier from Petersburgh assures us, that the empress of Russia, will send a fleet of twenty-five hips of the line, and a large body of troops, to cooperate with Great-Britain and this republic.

FRANCFORT, February 15. the courts in Europe. They have proclaimed the dauphin king of France, under the title of Louis perial courts. duced by famine to the most dreadful extremity.

Custine, at Mentz, is also reduced to the last extremity; and there is reason to suppose, that he will very shortly make overtures for capitulation, or for permission to retire to France.

HAGUE, February 21. Their high mightipesses have issued a proclamation for public prayers, which are to begin on Wednesday the 27th instant, and to be continued for a fortnight, to implore the bleffing of Almighty God on the Dutch arms, and those of her allies, against the French.

Feb. 24. Lieutenant-general Boetzelaar, governor of Williamstadt, left the Hague yesterday to go to his government; on the same day lieutenant-general Dumoulin, inspector of the works and fortifications, went to Breda.

them vigoroully, and they were obliged to retreat, papers, having had five men cut in pieces. The Dutch cap- The message delivered to both houses of parliament the British merchants there were fearful to let their priloners. The Dutch only lost one man.

have orders to quit that place in three times twenty-The empress of Russia deteits the French, and will of the French. ers have been dispatched from Petersburgh to Stock. French bear the smallest weight in the scale of Euholm and Copenhagen, to demand a declaration of rope. mark, it is thought, will be tenacious of her trade to pence, demanding no affiltance in the way of bounty, France in provisions, fince it makes one of the chief nor even the privilege of appointing the officers. pranches of her revenue.

vious to his departure.

It is confidently reported there, that the eredentials demonville will be accepted. March 6. An officer is just arrived from the prince of Helle, at Maestricht, with intelligence, that on the 3d init. the prince de Cobourg obtained a most comere victory over the French, chafing them out of Last Saturday the 23d instant, about half after of which four were bomb veffels, and against the inclination of the garrison. Count Byland, o'clock at night, when all was still for some time. leven were thips of the line, having is at the Hague, under arrest, and a commission is On Sunday morning, about half past three o'clock, quitting the Gulph. Several of the thips were da- place many French have fallen, without the farallest houses, fire by a red hot ball, but by the timely affiftance of The line of defence by water is strengthened every duced no effect but on the substitutes below the city, and March 8. Intelligence has been received here, that the French attempted to land in several places to pro- possession of Tongres-that the Austrian army has have evacuated Fort St. Michael.

LONDON, March 2.

of letters said to have been received by a mercantile vancing into Holland, had Ruck in the mud, and fallen we heard that the capitulation was made. into the hands of the enemy.

have sent official notice of their brother's death to all mention the death of the grand signor, Selim, and of with two field pieces, to Bosch, Thiel, Bommel and the hostile disposition of his successor towards the Im- Utrecht, with perfect liberty to remain in the service king of Prussia has already acknowledged the new French gasconader has undertaken an enterprise which Bosch. king, the regent, and the lieutenant general of France. he will find it impossible to execute. It is upon his At three o'clock about 450 men, infantry and cu-Feb. 27. The fortress of Kænigstein is on the eve formidable train of artillery that Dumourier entirely rassiers, entered this place from the French camp. of surrendering to the Prussians. The garrison is re- relies, and that, in such a country as Holland at predeep in the mud, that they could not be recovered. tell. Several were in this manner actually loft. To bring up artillery for the bombardment of a strong fortress, will in such a case appear impossible, and the Dutch fortresses are too strong and too resolutely desended to be taken in any other way than by regular approach.

By an account from Hamburg we learn, that the Imperial and Prussian ministers presented a receipt, infifting upon the difmissal of M. le Hoe, the French resident at that place, and that M. le Hoe the next day fet off with his whole family for France. March 7. By the French papers it appears that Dumourier, in a letter, dated the 26th ult. to the commillioners at Bruffels, and transmitted by them to the On the 21st, in the afternoon, captain Maraquin, convention, announces, that Klundert was taken by at the head of a detachment of dragoons, sallied forth the French on the night of the 25th—that William.

tain arrived about five o'clock in the evening, with from his majesty yesterday, for taking into the pay of vessels leave port. one French officer and fix privates, who were taken Great-Britain a body of Hanoverian troops, will be The French ambassador was in Charleston when taken into confideration this day.

At Rotterdam, all the French who have not obtain- The duke of York wrote to the king upon his foon for Philadelphia by land. ed express permission of residence from government, landing at Helvoet, that he was apprehensive of the Captain Storer surther informs, that the commander rather distatisfied with Sweden and Denmark, which country, prove the zeal of all descriptions of men-It more of Boston. powers the suspects of favouring the French. Couri- is essential that that zeal should not relax, whilst the

Saturday was brought into Dover, the Imack Tere-The latest accounts from Constantinople state, that sia, Barend Kob, master, of Rapenburg from Roven, te Porte gave to M. de Choiseul Goussier, the late with a cargo of wine and vinegar, for Ostend,—she French ambassador, a present of 10,000 piastres, pre- was taken by the Badger revenue cutter, captain

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT

TAKING OF BREDA. BREDA, February 25.

Allela Chapelle, as far as Liege, with a loss on their eight o'clock, a trumpeter, accompanied by a Brench out; also, our similes are getting to preparation. one batteries at Zwalme, killed 1300 of the city. The commandant feat an aniwer about twelve spanfaulted to bling Lee, E/q; governor of Virginia.

The commandant feat an aniwer about twelve spanfaulted to bling Lee, E/q; governor of Virginia.

The commandant feat an aniwer about twelve spanfaulted to bling Lee, E/q; governor of Virginia.

The commandant feat an aniwer about twelve spanfaulted to bling Lee, E/q; governor of Virginia.

The commandant feat an aniwer about twelve spanfaulted to bling Lee, E/q; governor of Virginia. about half after three o'clocks the French threw tome was furnendered by treache- bombs and howitzers into the city; the first was so we Times are tood a siege. The gazzison, well directed, that it fell before the guard-house, and ceive there are by terms of capitulation, marched out with all the wounded a grenadier. By the fublequent bombs NELLICENCE has been received honours of war, and with full liberty to ferve again. [cyeral houses were damaged] the slarm was immehere; that on the 27th of January, It was furrendered in confequence of a confederacy diately beat, and the military took their respective the French squadron in the Gulph of between count Byland, the governor, and some dif- stations. From that time the bombardment became Cagliari, confilling of 20 br 21 thips, contented magiltrates and other inhabitants, and much very violent, and lasted uninterruptedly till feven

the French bombardment became extremely violent. ich Was well answered by the garrison. It lasted till This attack was continued for three days, when the berg and Weathene, are all vigourously besieged, but seven o'clock, and during that time the French threw ships retired out of reach of the eannon, but without hold out with determined resolution. Before the first in 150 bombs and howitzers, which demolished fixty

The damage might still have become greater, and could not possibly be repaired, fince no person durst appear in the streets to catch the bombs and to extinguish the fire, and every inhabitant sought resuge in the cellar of his house.

On Sunday towards noon, another staff officer with cure provisions, but they were every where repulsed taken Liege—that Ruremonde has been taken by a trumpeter, arrived before the gate of Bosch, and prince Frederick of Brunswick-and that the French was again conducted to the commandant, to summon the city again, threa ening to reduce the place to ashes, and to put the whole garrison to the sword. After this, the first council of war was held, and towards A report was yesterday prevalent, on the authority night a major with a trumpeter were dispatched to the French general, who remained with the French all house in the city, that Dumourier's artiflery, in ad- night, and did not return till Monday morning, when

We were then informed, that the garrison should The two brothers of his late most christian majesty, Accounts from Germany, by the way of France, march out with all the honours of war, each battalion of the state, and to fight against any enemy.

XVIIIh-Count de Provence, is declared regent of Of the probability of Dumourier's success in Hol- In virtue of this capitulation, this afternoon about the kingdom, and count d'Artois, lieutenant-general. land, we are now enabled to form a pretty just esti- four o'clock the battalion of Orange Nassau, with a The regent has sent colonel Von Roll to be ambassa- mate. A variety of circumstances have come to our part of that of Dam, marched, drums beating, codor at the head-quarters of his Prussian majesty. The knowledge, which induce us to conclude that the lours slying, and two field pieces, through the gate of

Fortunately few lives have been loft. One burgher fent is, is wholly unferviceable to him. The roads was killed by a bomb, and an apothecary's wife danare almost impassible morasses, and in attempting to gerously wounded. The garrison have not lost a single bring forward some light field pieces, they sunk so man. What number the French loft, we cannot

> NEW-YORK, April, 23. An account has been received from St. Kitts, that his Britannic majesty's frigate, Proserpine, of twentyeight guns, had, after a smart contest, taken and carried to that island, the French frigate, La Felicite, of thirty-two guns.

Captain Storer, who arrived here yesterday from Charleston, informs us, that on Sunday the 14th instant coming over Charleston bar, he saw a large English ship from Bremen, going into Charleston harbour, which he was informed had been made a prize of by the French frigate l'Ambuscade; that some French merchants in Charleston had purchased two vessels, and were fitting them out as privateers to cruise against from Breda, and fell in with a French advanced post, stadt was to be attacked on the following night, and the English; that the l'Ambricade continued to cruise about an English mile from that place; he charged he had no doubt of taking it. Thus much the French off Charleston, making the bar in the morning, and then standing off the remainder of the day; and that captain Storer sailed, but intended to leave that place

fate of Breda. If his royal highness with the Eng. of the l'Ambuscade, in order to render himself more four hours. A vast number of gun boats are getting lish guards had been in that fortress, we may venture secure, had offered a lieutenant's commission in the ready there, and will be fit for fervice in a few days. to fay, that it would not have been now in possession navy of the French republic, to any American who would undertake to act as pilot on board his vessel & exert herself to the surprise of all Burope. She seems . The numerous bounties given in every part of the and that the offer was embraced by captain Whittia

BALTIMORE, April 26. On Wednesday last arrived here the ship Mary, those courts respecting the conduct they mean to pur- Mr. Lister, of Skipton in Craven, Yorkshire, has captain Travers, in seven weeks from Falmouth. the with regard to France and the allied powers-Den- offered to raife a regiment of dragoons at his own ex- The captain was informed by the American conful there, when he was ready to fail, that the French were within one day's march of Amsterdam, and that there was no opposition offered to them. It was reported, when he sailed, that a French privateer, of forty four guns, had taken a British sloop of war called the Viper. Captain Travers brought no papers. Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Cadiz, to bis friend in this town, dated March 9, per the Queen A war appears unavoidable between this country and France. The French thips are ftopt in all the ports of Spain. The French crusters have already taken some Spanish emisers. Our fleets are fitting ire of 1000 killed, 1500 taken prisoners, and more onicer, arrived before the gate of boich, and were Copy of a letter from captain Neal and Mr. Philps, at conducted to the commandant, whom they summoned . Neal's flation, near the mouth of Little Kanawha, to on the same day prince Prederick of Brunswick in the name of general Dumourier, to surrender the colonel William Locather, of Harrison county, who

G DEAR COL