been fince the war. There came a man here laft night, who informs, that on the 23d instant he was at the Big Kanawha, where he faw a party of Indians attack a cabin on the other fide of the laver, where they killed a young woman, and took a boy prisoner, but, through the bravery of old Mr. Vanbiver and his negro, were repulsed, leaving one of their men on the ground, and two or three wounded, so that they were obliged to lead them off. Squire Green-also came up yesterday, and gives the same account, therefore it is very certain. We are also certainly informed by men coming up the river, that they faw as many as thirteen rafts, some of which measured 18 by 14 feet. Tracks have also lately been seen on Little Hockhocken, and yetterday a party croffed the Ohio, near Sandy run; whether they intend for this station, or for your county, is uncertain.

" We leave it to you, Sir, to judge of the fituation of this frontier, and make no doubt but you will do every thing in your power for our protection. We are, with the greatest esteem, your very humble ser-

wants,

JAMES NEAL, " HUGH PHELPS.

P. S. After sealing this letter, we have this moment received a certain account of two rafts crossing the Ohio, one above the mouth of Bull creek, and the other about the Long Reach. You may, by this movement of the enemy, see the situation our frontiers are in, and we fear your frontiers are in greater danger. Accounts of the Indians croffing some part of the river, come almost hourly; we can at this time only pray for protection, which we make no doubt you will give us to the utmost of your power. We are, Sir, your humble suppliants, sor ourselves and J. N. and H. P. the people in general, se Col. William Lowther."

Mr. GRAHAM, HAVING seen a paragraph in yesterday's Evening Post, under the New-York head, setting forth, " that the British frigate Proserpine had taken and carried into St. Kitt's the French frigate la Felicite," and having just arrived from Guadaloupe, I have it in my commanded by citizen Lacrosse, was lying at anchor in the harbour of Basseterre.

It is said, the whole number of English seamen Ropped in the ports of Old France by the declaration of war, amounts to 5000. These have universally offered their services to the French navy, rather than return to their own country, and submit to the tyranmy of prefs warrants and prefs gangs, in and by which the most natural rights are lawlessly trampled under

ANN, APOLIS, May 2. By the PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

APROCLAMATION. WHEREAS it appears that a state of war exists: between Austria, Prussia, Sardinia, Great-Britain, and the United Netherlands, of the one part, and France on the other, and the duty and interest of the United States require, that they should with sincerity and good faith, adopt and purfue a conduct friendly and impartial toward the belligerent powers:

I have therefore thought fit by these presents, to deelare the disposition of the United States to observe the conduct aforefaid towards these powers respectively; and to exhort and warn the citizens of the United States carefully to avoid all acts and proceedings whatfoever, which may in any manner tend to contravene fuch disposition.

And I do hereby also make known that whosoever of the citizens of the United States, shall render himfelf liable to punishment or forfeiture under the law of nations, by committing, aiding or abetting hostilities against any of the faid powers, or by carrying to any of them those articles, which are deemed contraband by the modern usage of nations, will not receive the protection of the United States, against such punishment or forfeiture; and further, that I have given in-Aructions to those officers to whom it belongs, to cause prosecutions to be instituted against all persons, who shall; within the cognizance of the courts of the United States, violate the law of nations, with respect to the powers at war or any of them.

In testimony whereof I have caused the seal of the United States of America, to be affixed to these presents, and signed the same with my hand, Done at the city of Philadelphia, the twentysecond day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the seventeenth. G. WASHINGTON.
