PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING & PERIODICAL WORK,

lections from different authors, both ancient and mo dern, either of Europe or America, will form a part of this work; likewife, the newest improvements and discoveries that have or may be made, within the prefent century, in each art and frience. II. Extracts from various writers on Religion, Philofophy, Law, Physic, and Divinity, shall also compose a part of this work .- A space will be assigned for the debates of congress—the debates of the British house of commons-a complete register of foreign and domeltic news-effays-poetry-marriages-deaths, &c.

III. Farmers, millers, and mechanics, shall be gratified with a particular description of such methods and machinery as are now in use among the most experienced in the above branches of business, in this country and in Europe.

IV. It shall comprise forty-eight octave pages, neatly printed, and stitched in blue paper .-- Price to subscribers Twenty Shillings per annum; others who purchase will have to pay Twenty-two Shillings and Six-pence, or a Quarter of a Dollar each number.

V. As soon as 400 subscribers are procured, this work shall be put to press, and a number delivered regularly in the first week of every month.* Eight pages will be assigned for ADVERTISEMENTS, which may be of peculiar advantage to the manufacturing and trading part of the community in every state in the union; as it is expected to meet with a general circulation throughout the continent, and ferve as a vehicle of useful information and instruction to every citizen in the United States.

IT is needless to say much in favour of a publication of this nature.- The utility and convenience of a work of this kind must appear obvious to every person the least acquainted with polite literature, and a general knowledge of the world .- It will contribute towards the stock of necessary information, respecting mercantile affairs, manufactures, agriculture, and commerce; and is nieant to convey pleasure as well as profit to those who shall patronise this work .-Readers, of every denomination, shall occasionally be furnished with sketches of real life, and the utmost exertions shall be made to render it as useful a publication as any ever attempted in this country.

Subscriptions are taken in by the publisher PHILIP EDWARDS, JAMES RICE, and AMBROSE CLARK, IR

The printers throughout the United States are earnestly requested to give these proposals a place in their news papers, which will very much oblige their most obedient humble servant,

PHILIP EDWARDS. Baltimore, June 28, 1763. N. B. Those subscribers who live at a distance from Baltimore, shall have their books forwarded by the earliest and cheapest conveyance, but at their own risque and expence. * Half the subscription money to be paid on the delivery of the first number.
