By virtue of a decree of the chancery court the subscriber will SELL, at PUBLIC AUCTION, the real estate of FRANK LEEKE, late of Prince-George's county, deceased, as follows:

ON Saturday the 16th of March, at 3 o'clock, at the house of Mr. Greenwell, in Upper-Marlborough, that valuable piece of ground, adjoining the said town, purchased by the said Frank Leeke of Daniel Carroll, on which there is a valuable mill, with suitable buildings, &c. the quantity of the said land is supposed to be about thirty acres, and the greater part is valuable meadow ground, well improved, on which a considerable quantity of hay has been annually made. The said land will be sold by the acre, on a credit of six months, the purchaser giving bond with security for the purchase money.

And, on Tuesday the 2d of April, at 4 o'clock, on the premises, in Upper-Marlborough, the late dwelling house of the said Frank Leeke, viz. a large brick house, with a passage and four rooms below, a store house, kitchen, linoke house, dairy, stables, &c. sufficient for the accommodation of a large family; there is belonging to the lot on which the said house stands a large garden and yard, and adjoining thereto a valuable piece of land for pasture, &c. containing about ten acres, which will be sold with the house.

Also a framed dwelling house, with two rooms below, with a small piece of ground adjoining, on the street leading up to the court-house.

Also a valuable piece of meadow ground adjoining the wharf, and lying on the creek leading to Upper-Marlborough, supposed to contain about seven acres, to be sold by the acre. The said property to be sold on the same terms as are above mentioned, and the subscriber is empowered, on either of the said days, to dispose of the said property by contract, publicly made, instead of putting it up at auction.

And upon the approbation, confirmation and ratification, by the chancellor of the sale, and upon the receipt of the whole purchase money (and not before) the subscriber, as trustee, will convey to the purchaser respectively the right which the said Frank Leeke had in the said property, and which descended to his heir. The creditors of the said Frank Leeke who have not yet exhibited their claims, are desired to bring the same, with the vouchers thereof, into the chancery court within three months from the said 2d day of April.

March 4, 1799.

To be SOLD for CASH, or on long credit,

A FAMILY of SLAVES, consisting of a man, his wife, and their eight children: four boys and four girls, the eldest seventeen years of age, the youngest twelve months; the man is honest and sober, a good gardener, a steady market man, and handy at all work; the woman is an excellent plain cook, honest and sober; the experience of so large a family in town, and the reluctance of the parents to have their children sold, or even separated from them, is the only reason of their being offered for sale. To a good master in the country who would keep the family together, and manumit the female children at twenty-eight years of age, they will be disposed of on easy terms. PHILIP B. KEY, Annapolis, October 10, 1798.

To be SOLD, at PUBLIC SALE, on the first Monday in April next, at the dwelling plantation of the subscriber, on West river, Anne-Arundel county, if fair, if not the first fair day ensuing,

REGIMENTAL ORDERS,
March 6, 1799.

THE officers commanding companies in the 22d regiment are requested, agreeably to the supplement to the militia law, to make out a list in writing of all the privates and non-commissioned officers of their respective companies, on or before the first of April next, noting in the same the age of every person, and a copy thereof, when so made out, to return immediately to

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 6th instant, a negro JEM, 22 years of age, about 5 feet 3 inches high, well made, and of a black complexion, has a lively countenance when in a good humour, but very stern when affronted, has rather a low forehead, thick lips, is a little knock-kneed, and walks with his toes much out; had on and took with him a felt hat, about half worn, an old blue cloth coat, drab coloured cloth jacket, with sleeves, in which, since made up, he has cut pockets, and sewed the binding on awkwardly, which renders it remarkable, white cotton breeches, mixed yarn stocking, country knit, common negro shoes, much worn, with a small cap on the toe of each. Any person securing the said fellow in any part, and giving me notice thereof, shall be entitled to FIFTEEN DOLLARS, or the above reward if brought home, with all reasonable charges.

GUTHRIE HARWOOD, of Annapolis,
June 12, 1798.

By his Excellency
BENJAMIN OGLE, Esquire,
GOVERNOR of MARYLAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it appears by the deposition of William Crofman and representation of Henry Hall Dorsey, Esquire, of Anne-Arundel county, that a certain John Tufft, of the said county, on the second day of January last, beat, in a cruel manner, the said William Crofman, and that the said Tufft still threatens the aforesaid Crofman, and refuses to be taken by the officers of government, or to submit to the laws, so that the said Crofman is duly in danger of his life; and whereas it is obviously the duty of the executive to guard as much as may be against the commission of such enormities, and to bring such offenders against the laws and peace of society to justice, I have therefore thought proper, by and with the advice of the council, to issue this my proclamation, authorizing and enjoining all sheriffs, and other officers of the peace, to apprehend and convey before some one of the judges or justices within this state the said John Tufft, in order that he may be dealt with according to law; and I do hereby exhort and require the good people of this state to be aiding and assisting the said officers in the execution of their duty.

Given in Council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the State of Maryland, this eleventh day of March, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine.
