HAS the honour to inform the public, that having now received his complete Port Folio, and a collection of studies and principles proper for teaching to draw and paint Flowers, Landscapes, Figures, &c. &c. that if by subscription he can procure a sufficient number of scholars to form an academy, he offers to teach them with rapid success.

He also paints MINIATURES at moderate prices. Likewise PROFILE PORTRAITS, coloured on vellum, at three dollars each, all warranted likeness. He assures the public that his profiles are not produced by machinery, but are the effects of his acquirements, from close and attentive application to study in the best schools in Italy. His extensive practice in his profession he hopes will entitle him to the patronage of a generous public. Ladies and gentlemen who will honour him with their confidence will please to leave their directions with Mr. WILLIAM CATON.

St. Mary's College.

Grand Lottery, Baltimore;

AUTHORISED by the general assembly of the State of Maryland, the scheme of which is the most brilliant ever offered to the citizens of the United States, containing besides a large number of other good prizes—

- 1 prize of 30,000 dollars,
- 1 do. of 15,000 dollars,
- 3 do. of 10,000 dollars,
- 2 do. of 5000 dollars,
- 8 do. of 1500 dollars,
- 7 do. of 1000 dollars,

Not two blanks to a prize, and the lowest prize is twelve dollars. The scheme contains only 21,000 tickets; 10,000 of which are actually sold to a company of gentlemen in New-York, to whom the managers have obligated themselves to commence drawing in the city of Baltimore, On THURSDAY the 31st day of DECEMBER next, and to draw 500 tickets per day.

Tickets and shares are now selling in a variety of numbers and very rapidly, at TEN Dollars and HALF each, for a short time, at

G. & R. WAITE'S.

Truly fortunate Lottery office, corner of Market and Charles streets Baltimore.

The grandeur of the scheme of the above lottery, together with an assurance from the managers that it will positively commence drawing on the 31st day of December next, have been a sufficient inducement for the subscribers to come to the city of Baltimore for the express purpose of facilitating the sale of the tickets.

G. & R. WAITE.

One of the above firm will personally attend the drawing daily, to take down the numbers correctly as will also one of their clerks.

The next New-York lottery will not commence drawing till April next—tickets of which lottery may be had at Waite's offices, No. 64 and No. 38 Maiden Lane New-York.

Distant adventurers accompanying their orders with bank notes, of any description to either of Waite's offices, in New-York or Baltimore, may have tickets and shares forwarded to any amount with the utmost punctuality, and the earliest advertisement them of their success. All prizes sold by G. & R. Waite, will be paid by them.

October 12, 1807.
