A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it appeareth unto me by an Inquisition taken before John Auquith Esquire, one of the Coroners of Baltimore county, that a most atrocious mur der was committed on the person of a certain William Henry M Cubbin, a ci tizen of the city of Baltimore, by some unknown person, on or about the twenty-second day of October last, which In quisition hath been returned to me accompanied by a memorial of sundry tespectable persons, inhabitants of the city of Baltimore, praying the interposition of Government: And whereas the quiet and security of the State depend on the vigilance of the constituted suthorities in causing the laws against such enormities to be duly executed. I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of Five Hun dred Dollars to any person who shall discover the author or perpetrator of the aforesaid murder, provided he be rought to justices. Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Mayland this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen
