arrived, the brig Poacher, Mal-65 days from Liverpool, and from Fayal, with cackery and sware. April 28th, fell in with ship Solon, Stoddard, from Lon-for New York, with hemp, dry ds, copper Sec. which had been with lightning in the even-previous, and set on fire, in lat.
15, long. 27, then 20 days out. back off the passengers, 27 in num-and crew, amounting in all to and shortly after the fire burst ough the deck, and we saw the ings go over the side. The foling account of the disaster, fur-shed by a passenger, and politely aded us from the Exchange Coffee ade, agrees with the minutes ade on the log book, as recorded Mr. Popple, with which we have been favoured: "On the 27th April, at 9 o'clock P. M. a boat ighting struck the ship, attending a singular explosion, disorder-ing every thing in its passage down the mainmast. The captain, with any others on the upper deck, were on a knock down; on the mideck the same effect was proceded—yet in either case no lives were lost. Immediately columns of oke rose from the hold through very aperture; and such was the rength of the devouring matter, at it must, at the same instant, ve set fire to every part of the rgo which was liable to take fire om it. In this emergency, the thickness of the smoke became such to prevent further respiration ll rushed on deck in confusion—the lightning still bursting forth, so that the whole sea appeared like a urnace.

Here was one of the most distressing scenes that ever was witnessed—the most part of the people half naked, and it being imprac-icable to return for their clothes, and with no more of the necessities of life than would be required for about two days subsistence. All that now remained to our hopes was to keep the fire under by blocking up every aperture where the smoke issued—and should this be effected, we were fearful a few hours might close the scene. The boats could not take two thirds our number, and the tremendous sea also forbid the trial; the hope of falling in with a vessel was precarious, yet the hand of a gracious Providence was over our heads. In this state we continued till next day about 11 o'clock, when the Poacher, Captain Malcolm, appeared in sight, and ultimately saved our lives. The last boat had scarce reached the brig when the Solon's mizen-mast fell overboard, and the main-mast followed in about half an hour after.
At this time the flames had burst out in every direction, so that Providence had sent this vessel to our aid in a most critical moment. So a great number of persons being added to those already on board the Poacher, she having before seven passengers, it became necessary to make for the Western Islands, for and provisions. Was arrived at Fayal on the 1st of May, where very attention was paid to our wants by Mr. Dabney, the American Consul, and other persons, particularly Messrs. Searle, Parker, Bayley and Correa.

George & John Barber, Deacons of accommodating their friends and the public, have at considerable expense built and equipped new vessels for the purpose of sailing them as Packets, between this City and Baltimore. Their cabins, are spacious, elegant, and airy, and provided with every thing necessary to promote the convenience and comfort of passengers. Every exertion will be made to insure speedy and safe passages, and no expense spared to obtain the best fare for their tables. One of their boats will leave this place every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning, at 9 o'clock, for Bal-more, and the other leave Baltimore for this place every Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, and every Wednesday and Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

They will continue to perform, for their steady friends and supporters, all business with which they may be entrusted, but to avoid being injured by mistakes, must be decline holding themselves responsible for lessons, or any thing which they may be required to do.

They keep as a Druggers large, well built Schooner, which will take freight to any place on the Chesapeake Bay—she is in the charge of Captain Spencer, a careful and experienced skipper. Persons wishing to employ her are requested to make application at either of their stores situated near the dock.

We will embrace this opportunity of offering the liberal treatment which we received from the few of our fellow countrymen who are so blind to the welfare of their country, which should ever have been a Packets of her own, as dangerous to the tenance the intolerance of strangers who our time, and who carry their animosity wards us so far, as when called from their themselves in preference to going with us to give more than our price for a passage, to go with those whose interests are by no means connected with Annapolis, and the one who live in a town which has been been inimical to her, and who it is happily, if our vessels were taken from her line, and it should happen no longer, would take their own convenience to continue upon take their own convenience, and thus leave citizens of this place destitute of a valuable mode of conveyance to Baltimore. But what the treatment, of which we complain, appear in our view so very ungenerous, and puncture, have, when it was needed to them in Baltimore—a thing we have never refused to do, though we have never accepted or received compensation for the same.
Such conduct, then, the candid and judicious must agree with us, is unbecoming, and we now inquire, whether any man of feeling, would, after patiently submitting to more than twelve months, continue to perform the unprofitable jobs of a who thus throw their property into the hands of others? We think there is no man who would; and in future it need be expected of us. The profits of our have arisen principally from the passage money, and not from the cost of freight.
But even the receipts for passages, have been much abridged nearly three years ago, the Baltimore steam boats losing sight of regular lines and sailing at irregular times, and the consequence of the irregular sailing of the coasters of appeal and complaints it necessary for strangers to visit this city.

It has been said that we ought to declare a Steam Boat—this would no doubt be highly gratifying to the public, to whom must say we are grateful for past generament, and to please whom we would be hesitate to do any thing consistent with and our own safety, but when we take into consideration the first cost of such an enlishment, the extensive patronage which would be necessary to support it, and the present unprofitableness of the line, we between this and Baltimore, we are brought irresistibly to conclude that such step, on our part, would be nothing more foolishly dissipating and wasting the earnings of our past lives, and sealing the ruin of our selves and our families. Let those who inconsiderately talked of what we ought do, bear in mind, that the abolition of the general court, the taking of the funds from the College, and the late act already mentioned, from a season of the year when the is usually climatic, and our funds are running, to a time when they are lying account of its tempestuousness, have to reduce the receipts of the line so low be little more than sufficient to defray the expense attendant upon it, and not enough to compensate us for the sacrifice of our time, which we might frequently employ more profitable pursuits. If there are any who doubt this statement, let them compare our books for the last two or three years, and then if they find what we say is not correct, let them expose it to it to the world. Still in defence of this, if there are, among those who for a Steam Boat has led them to run lovely in favour of one, any lenient who will come forward as contributors proportionate part of the cost of building running such a vessel, we will continue with them in putting one upon the line. If there are any such, let them because of the great hazard and danger the undertaking, we hope that all con-against us, for not doing so without acces, will cease, and that our business will suffer any declension on that account.
We now assure a firm friend of whenever Annapolis improves to the promise support adequate to the expense of such a vessel, we will furnish that we will furnish ourselves with a Steam Boat equal to any belonging to the State, and until such time arrives, we reasonable man ought to expect no more so.

and seventeen, entitled, An act to prevent the unlawful exportation of negroes and mulattoes, and to alter and amend the laws concerning run-aways, be published once in each week, land Gazette at Annapolis, the Federal Gazette and Federal Republican at Baltimore, the Frederick town Herald,

Clerk of the Council.

AN ACT to prevent the unlawful exportation of negroes and mulattoes, and to alter and amend the laws concerning run-aways.

Whereas, the laws heretofore enacted for preventing the kidnapping of negroes and mulattoes, and for exporting out of this state negroes and mulattoes entitled to their freedom for a term of years, have been found insufficient to restrain the commission of such crimes and misdemeanors; and whereas, such persons have been found seduced from the service of their masters and fraudulently removed out of this state; and that the children of negroes and mulattoes have been snatched from their masters, protected parents, and transported to other places, and sold as slaves for the purpose of preventing such heinous crimes, and to punish them when committed.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the publication of this act, no servant or slave, who is or may be entitled to freedom after a term of years, after any particular time, or upon contingency, knowing the said servant or slave to be entitled to freedom aforesaid, to any person who shall at the time of such sale a bona fide resident of this state, and who has been a resident therein for the space of at least one year next preceding such sale, or to any person who shall be procured, engaged employed, to purchase servants or slaves for any other person not being a bona fide resident, and if any person claiming, possessing, or being entitled to such servant or slave, shall dispose of him or her to any person who is not a resident as aforesaid, knowing that such person is a resident as aforesaid, or to any person who shall be procured, engaged
a resident, knowing the person or slave to be so procured, engaged or employed, or who shall sell or dispose of such servant or slave for any term of years, or for a longer term than he or she is bound to serve, such person making any such sale or disposition contrary to the provisions and intention of this act, shall be liable to indictment in the county of the county where such seller shall reside, or sale be made.
On conviction shall be sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding two years, according to the discretion of the court; and such servant or slave who may be sold contrary to the provisions of this act, to any person who is
a bona fide resident, shall be sold by the court for the time he or she may have to serve, for the benefit of the county where such conviction shall be had, or for the use of the mayor and city council of Baltimore if the conviction shall be had in Baltimore court.

And be it enacted, That if any person who is not a bona fide resident of this state, and who has not resided in this state for the space of at least one year next preceding such purchase, shall purchase or receive on any contract any such servant or slave, who is entitled to freedom as aforesaid, knowing that such servant or slave is entitled to freedom as aforesaid, if any person who shall be procured, engaged or employed, to purchase servants or slaves for any other person not being a bona fide resident, shall purchase or receive on any contract any such servant or slave entitled to freedom as aforesaid, knowing that such servant or slave is entitled to freedom as aforesaid, with an intention to transport such servant or slave out of the state, every such person making any such purchase or contract, contrary to the meaning of this act, shall be liable to be indicted in any county court in this state where he may be found, and on conviction shall undergo confinement in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding two years, and such slave or slaves shall be sold by order of the court for the unexpired time of their servitude, for the use of the county in which such conviction shall be had, or for the use of the mayor and city council if such conviction shall be had in Baltimore city court; provided nevertheless, that if any such person who shall have purchased or received such servant or slave, without knowing of his or her title to freedom after a term of years, or after any particular time, or upon any contingency, shall immediately after knowing thereof, give information on oath, or affirmation, to one of the justices of the peace of the county where the seller shall reside, or in the county where such person may reside, or the sale may have been made, of such sale and purchase, the person so purchasing or receiving shall not be liable to prosecution or the punishment as aforesaid.

3. And be it enacted, That no sale of any servant or slave, who is or may be entitled to freedom after a term of years, or after any particular time, or upon any contingency, or in whom the seller is entitled to a term of years or limited time, with the reversion in some other person or persons, shall be valid and effectual in law to transfer any right or title in or to such servant or slave, unless the same be in writing, under the hands and seals of both the seller, or his or her authorized agent, and the purchaser, in which the period and terms of servitude or slavery, and the interest of the seller, and also the residence of the purchaser, shall be stated, and the same be acknowledged by said purchaser and seller, or his or her authorized agent, before a justice of the peace in the county where such sale shall be made, and recorded among the records of the county court of said county, within twenty days after such acknowledgment; and if any such sale should be made, and a bill of sale so as aforesaid should not be so executed, acknowledged and recorded, or in case the true time or condition of the slavery or servitude of such servant or slave, and the residence of said purchaser, should not be therein stated, then and in such case every such servant or slave, entitled to freedom after a term of years, or after any particular time, or on any contingency, shall be thereupon free, unless the court or jury who may decide upon the question in a trial, if a petition for freedom, under the foregoing provision, shall be of the opinion that no fraud was intended by the omission of any one of the requisites aforesaid, and in case any other person shall be entitled to a reversion or remainder in said slave, then the said servant or slave shall become the right and property of the said person entitled immediately to such reversion or remainder, in the same manner as if the event or time in which the reversion or remainder was to accrue had actually occurred, unless the court or jury who may decide upon the accrual of such remainder or reversion under
the omission of any one of the requisites aforesaid.

4. And be it enacted, That whenever any person shall purchase any slave or slaves within this state, for the purpose of exporting or removing the same beyond the limits of this state, it shall be their duty to take from the seller a bill of sale for said slave or slaves, in which the age and distinguishing marks, as nearly as may be, and the name of such slave or slaves, shall be inserted, and the same shall be acknowledge before some justice of the peace of the county where the sale shall be made, and lodged to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the said county, within twenty days, and the clerk shall immediately on the receipt thereof actually record the same, and deliver a copy thereof, on demand, to the purchaser, with a certificate endorsed thereupon, under the seal of the county, of the same being duly recorded, on receiving the legal fees for so recording and authenticating the same.

5. And be it enacted, That if any person who shall so have purchased any slave or slaves for exportation or removal from the state of Maryland, shall have the same in any county within this state, and information be lodged with any judge or justice of the peace, supported by oath or affirmation, that the deponent or affiant has reasonable ground to believe that such person, who shall so have such slave or slaves in his possession, is about to export and remove them from the state, contrary to law, it shall be the duty of such judge or justice of the peace to proceed to the house or place where such slaves may be, and such judge or justice is hereby empowered and required to enter into any such house or place where such slave or slaves may be, and to demand of the person or persons in whose custody the said slave or slaves may be, an inspection and examination of said slave or slaves, and also of the bills of sale for them respectively, and if upon such demand and examination no bill or bills of sale are produced for either or any such slave or slaves, or if the bills of sale produced shall not have been executed, acknowledged and recorded, agreeably to the provisions herein contained, that the description of any such slave or slaves shall be, in the judgment of such judge or justice of the peace false or fraudulent, then it shall be the duty of such judge or justice of the peace to cause such slave or slaves, for whom no bill of sale is produced, or for whom a false or fraudulent bill of sale is produced, to go before some judge or justice of the peace of the county aforesaid, and the person or persons who has or have said slave or slaves in possession shall also appear, and enter into a recognizance before the same judge or justice of the peace, with two sufficient securities in the sum of one thousand dollars, for every such servant or slave in his, her, or their possession, without bills of sale as is herein provided for, to appear at the next county court to answer to a petition of said slave or slaves; and if such judge or justice shall have reason to suspect that such slave or slaves have been stolen by such person or persons, or received by them knowing them to be stolen, or that they had knowingly aided therein, in such cases the recognizance shall provide for their answering such offence; and if such person or persons, so having such slave or slaves, shall refuse or neglect to enter into such recognizance, then such judge or justice of the peace shall commit said person or persons, and such slave or slaves, to the goal of the county; and the said judge or justice of the peace shall make return of said commitment to the county court, or Baltimore city court if then in session, and if not in session then to the next term of said courts respectively; or if such person, having entered into such recognizance, shall refuse to appear at a greeshly thereto, or if having appeared it shall appear that such slave or slaves is or are entitled to freedom, then the court shall adjudge them free, and it said court shall adjudge them to be slaves for life, or for a term of years, and it shall appear that said slave or slaves shall have been purchased with intent to remove them from the state of Maryland, and no bill of sale for the same shall have been taken for such slave or slaves, or a false or fraudulent bill of sale then the said court shall order such slave to be sold for the time such slave may have to serve, for the benefit of the county, or for the mayor and city council of Baltimore, if the aforesaid proceedings should be had in Baltimore city court; but if any slave or slaves, after a term of years, or upon any contingency, then the said servant or slave shall become immediately the right and property of the said person entitled to such reversion

actually occurred; Provided, that the said person, so entitled to the reversion or remainder, shall pay the costs of the proceedings which may have been had in the case, otherwise the said servant or slave shall be sold for the use of the county, or the mayor and city council of Baltimore, for the time he or she may have been bound to serve the person who sold said servant or slave; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to the case of any citizen removing from the state of Maryland with his servants and slaves, provided such citizen shall have resided within the state one year next preceding such removal, or to any person travelling with his or her servants or slaves in or through the state, not purchased with intent to export the same within the meaning of this act.

6. And be it enacted, That hereafter when any servant or slave shall be committed to the goal of any county in this state, as a runaway, agreeably to the laws now in force, and the notice required to be given by law by the sheriff shall have been given, and the time for their detention expired, and no person or persons shall have applied for and claimed said suspected runaway, and proved his, her, or their title to such suspected runaway, as is now required by law, it shall be the duty of the sheriff forthwith to carry such slave or slaves before some judge of the county court, or judge of the orphans court, with his commitment, and such judge is hereby required to examine and inquire, by such means as he may deem most advisable, whether such suspected runaway be a slave or not, and if he shall have reasonable grounds to believe that such suspected runaway is a slave, he may remand such suspected runaway to prison, to be confined for such further or additional and five, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said act; a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain the same, being annexed to his petition, and the said Charles A. Harvey having satisfied me, by competent testimony, that he hath resided in the State of Maryland for two years immediately preceding the time of his application, and having also stated in said petition, that he is now in actual confinement for debt, and not on account of any breach of the laws of this State or of the United States; and having produced to me the certificate of the constable of Anne Arundel county to that effect, and prayed to be discharged from said confinement on the terms prescribed by the said act, and having given security for his personal appearance at September Court next, to answer any allegations that may be made against him by his creditors, I do hereby order and adjudge that the same Charles A. Harvey be discharged from his confinement, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Annapolis, for three months successively, before the 21st day of September next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the County Court, at the Court-house in the said County, at 10 o'clock in the morning of the first day, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Charles A. Harvey should not have the benefit of the several acts of Assembly of this as prayed. Given under my hand and seal this 19th day of March 1818.
