300 Dollars

Ran away from the subscriber, living in Anne Arundel county, near Lyon's Creek, on the last day of the holidays, a Negro Man named

JIM

Aged about 21 years, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, black complexion, round face, set, and had on his coat a white collar, cloth coat, black cassimere pants, and a new fur hat. As he can write, it is probable he has forged a pass for himself and the others.

TOM

Aged about 27 years, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, slender made, black complexion, and down look when spoken to, he had a suit of white home made kersey and a hat.

WAPPIN

Aged about 45 years, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, a thick square built fellow, black complexion, had on a suit of white home made kersey with yellow stripes. I will give one hundred dollars for the apprehension of each of the above named negroes, if taken out of the state, or fifty dollars for each if taken in the state so that I get them again.

NOTICE.

Ordered, That the Corporation will meet every day from the second Monday in May to the Wednesday following, from nine until eleven o'clock in the morning, for the purpose of making transfers of assessable property within this city upon the assessors books, and that due notice be given thereof in the public papers.

Valuable Land for Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the high court of chancery of Maryland, will be disposed of at public sale, on Tuesday the 21st day of May next, at 12 o'clock, A.M. if fair, if not on that fair day thereafter, the farm of the late John Gibson, Esq. called

"The Seven Mountains."

This property is situated in Anne-Arundel county, on the north side of Magothy river, and immediately on the shore of the Chesapeake Bay, about seventeen miles from Baltimore, and eight from Annapolis. It is one of the most desirable abodes in Maryland either for one who derives his support from agricultural pursuits, or a man of fortune who is desirous of obtaining an elegant rural retreat.

ADMONITION.

The Baptismal admonition of the bystanders as it is beautiful: "Little babe, thou art dust, and to dust thou shalt return; but thou art made in the image of God, and thou art to depart in smiles, while all around you weep."

SAD MIRTH & JOYFUL MOURNING.

As there is a sad mirth so there is a joyful mourning. Look up to the voluptuous man, however laughter may appear in his face, yet sadness ever centres in heart; his carnal delights are not only vain but vexing; like music, they play him into a melancholy fit; whilst the banquet lasts, the sensualist sinks; but when the reckoning comes, his spirit sinks, his burning candle presently goes out in a sinking snuff, his shining sun instantly sets in the very cloud. Solomon gives us the sum of this: Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful, and the end of that mirth is heaviness. But now come to the penitential person, as his tears are the joy of angels, so they are the joy of his heart and the solace of his soul; the saltier his tears the sweeter his comforts; the deeper his sighs, the fuller his joys; the beams of consolation always shine into his house of mourning, so that his soul is in travail with a Barabbas, and his labours bring forth the fruits of peace; inasmuch that I may truly say, to mourn for sin, is to weep for joy. These pure and pleasant streams of consolation (which are the world's wonders) which flow and run through the crystal rivers of eternal pleasure, at God's right hand, come from a weeping spring.

EXTRACT.

When we have no help in ourselves what can remain, but that we look up to a higher and greater power? And to what hope may we not raise our eyes and hearts, when we consider that the greatest power is the best?

THE TERMS OF SALE

Are, one fourth cash, and the remainder to be paid in four equal annual instalments. Bonds with approved security will be required for the payment of that portion of purchase money for which credit is allowed. The payment of the whole of the purchase money deeds conveying the land will be executed. The sale will take place on the premises.

MENTAL PLEASURES.

Those who have resources within themselves, who can dare to live alone, want friends the least, but at the same time, best know how to prize them the most. But to company is far preferable to bad, because we are more apt to catch the vices of others than their virtues, as disease is far more contagious than health.

METHOD

Go far to prevent trouble in business; for it is not the task only, hinders confusion, as, as a rule, each of time, age instructs that there have business depending—both what to do and what to hope.
