To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverly Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Luw.

These Decisions willform a continuation of the first volume of iteperts already published by Mesers. Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will suctain a full and complete Index. This medio of publication, it is conceived, possesses vantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Keports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports; and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not have sensibly feit. These Decisions willform a continuation
