TO THE INDEPENDENT VOTERS OF CALVERT COVNTY.

Fellow Citizens,

Soon after the election of the officers of the preference to house of Delegates, a paragraph appeared in the Baltimore Patriot, making unprincipled allesion to two members of the General Assembly. At the instance of the publication made its appearance, it was smoothed at to be farmer, the proposed to members alloded to. I considered how ever that a reply to the exiter of the Patriot, was a coulied for, as I hold higher accountable alone to my constituents for my official conduct, and of that conduct if censurable. I had invited the two delegate, opposed to me from the country, (at the very commencement of the session,) at any and at all lines, y much publish a fair statement, over their own significant the passgraph alluded to, appeared ashound; the passgraph alluded to, appeared ashound; the passgraph alluded to, appeared ashound; to make the passgraph alluded to, appeared to the passgraph alluded to, appeared to the passgraph alluded to appear to the p Fellow Citizens, perspaper, which had never been remarkably acro-polous in detracting from the merit of those who are not under the control of its party.
