LAND FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers at privale sale a Tract of Land, near the city of annapolis, containing about Eight Hundred Acres of Land more or less. This land adj and the Farm of the late Charles Carroli of Carroliton, E-q. and is bounded on one side by Severn River, and Creeks, constituting good landings for vessels to take wood from the shore; there are on this land an almost inexhau-table quantity of wood, principally Pine, intermixed with Oak and Hickory; it has been estimated that thirty thou sand cords of word may be cut from this land for Market, and from its preximity to the different landings upon the river, will make it a desirable property to Gentlemen engaged in the wood business, or Factories requiring this most indispensible article. The improvements upon this estate are indifferent, the soil is well adapted to the growth of Indian Corn, Rye, and fine Tobacco may be made upon it. Any person who may be inclined upurchase, is invited to view the premises; and the Terms. which shall be accommodating, can be known by application to me on Elk Ridge, near Elli-cott's Mills, or to Robert Welch, of Ben, in the city of Annapolis, who will at any time Jan. 2 HENRY H. BELLES LETTRES. A NEW AND STRIKING CHARACTER ADDED TO WALDIE'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

THE Proprietor of this work, anxious to gratify his readers to as great an extent as his periodical press of London, &c. These reviews of Dr. Dennis Ciaude, why will be carefully selected with reference both to imparting correct information respecting where he will be happy to such new books as are reprinted in America, and to convey literary intelligence in regard to by the aid of his fellow-cia works which rarely fird their way across the Atlantic. As great exertions will be used to make this department instructive and enter-taining, the proprietor is confident that it will be considered an important addition, by means of which his numerous subscribers will fre quentry avoid the expense of purchasing such coaks as are printed on the cartulation that their titles or the reputation of their author-will sell the edition. This part of the Journal will sell the edition. This part of the Journal will embrace a considerable amount of extracts from new books of travels, memoirs, biography. novels, and in fact present a bird's eye view of new publications, early diffused through the Union, by means of the facilities of mail trans

The London Literary Gazette will be culled 8 74 for this purpose, while the "Critical Notices," of the Lendon Metropolitan, the Monthlis, New Monthly, the Gentleman's, Blackwood's, Tait's, Edinburgh, Friser's, and other Maga zines, already regularly received by the editor will be freely used.
