We have devoted all the space we had to spare to these extracts. There is in fact not thing else of any interest. The accounts from Spain are still contradic. tory. To us it appears very plain, however, that the strength put forth by Don Carlos, coupled with the doubts entertained of the success of M. Mendezabel's levy en masse, causes great uneasiness to the government of Louis Phillippe. From the London Times of Nov. 9. Paris, Saturday Afternoon.

In consequence of fresh instructions received eph K. Traverse, ayly, jr. Esqrs. from Washington, Mr. Barton, the Charge d'.
Affaires of the United States, at 6 o'clock yes. terday afternoon transmitted to the Duke do Broglie a formal application for his passports. y .- Benjamin L. The motive assigned for this measure in his of Esqrs. Nicholas Brewer, ficial note is simply the non-execution of the treaty negociated in Paris in the year 1831, and afterwards duly ratified, for the payment of theJohn Palmer. n Hemsley Esqrs. 25,000,000 francs, by the French to the American Government, as an indemnity for the spolia. omas A. Spence, can Government, as an indemnity for the spolia-er Hearn, John P. tion committed on American commerce under the Berlin and Milan decrees. In spite of the lliam Willis, Ro. serious shape which this question has now assumed the French authorities seem still to treat r, Esqrs. then Boyd, Samuhen Boyd, Samu-nd James Nelson, believe, or at least affect to discredit, the possibility of a rupture between two friendly Powers so long and so intimately allied as are France enal, and William and the United States, arising out of a paltry question of money. No direct application has -Beale H. Rich. yet been made either in Paris or Washington for the explanation or apology required by the amendment of General Valaze on the law of n, Esqrs. John O. Wharton, last session, and it is very certain that no indi-David Brookhart, vidual connected with the American government has ever entertained the remotest idea of volun-Robert M. Beam, teering the concession required.

On the present occasion it is not doubted that M. Pageot, the Secretary of French Legation at illiam McMahon, Washington, who was left there by M. Serurier, Berry, jr. and Jowith the rank of Charge d'Affaires, will be instructed by his government to follow Mr. Barton's example, it he has not already been sent gates being con-l in the presence out of the country by the President's orders. A e Constitution and non-intercourse act on the part of America, fol-lowed by reprisals on the part of France is conen adjourned until sidered still more inevitable. The French go-vernment flatter themselves that the people of as on yesterday. hry Fowler, Esqrs, try's county; John returned for Anne luke, Esquire, a dehe United States will suffer nearly as much as France under this system of quasi-hostility, and that moreover, they will be much less patient under their want of French wines and French silks, and of a market for their cotton and tobacco, than the people of France will be underg ounty, William D. their corresponding disadvantages. At all c-vents, it is inferred that the state of non-intercounty; John Bro-curned for Dorchescourse may continue without any rupture until atter Mr. Van Buren's instalment in the Presiorthington and Ed. dency, when it is thought that there will no gates returned for longer be any serious obstacle to an amicable iel Duvall, Esquire accommodation of the only point of difference erick county; and, a delegate returnwhich will then remain between the two couneverally appeared,

Mr. Barton, who has hitherto performed the functions of Charge d'Affaires of the United States at Paris decidedly leaves this city on Monday. It is said to be in consequence of the refusal of M. de Broglie to give a satisfactory answer to three proposals which he was com-missioned to make to him on the part of his government.—Messager.

The Constitutionel does not consider the step eaker of the House taken by Mr. Barton as indicative of approaching rupture. It observes that the Consul for the United States is to remain at Paris to keep G. Brewer, be opup, as heretofore, the commercial relations with France. It seems, in fact, that little or no unnt House of Deleeasiness prevails in any part of France about a risk of a war with the United States; and this is because there exists a strong imprese following order, sion that no means will be left untried to avoid Seegar, Joseph C. a rupture, and that some mode of adjustment will be devised which may prove equally satis-

Charge d'Affairs at Paris, having demanded his pass-ports of the French government is mentioned nitted the following in all the papers, save the ministerial organs. The Temps states that Mr. Barton made his application, in a peremptory style, on Friday; alleging the non-execution of treaties on the part of France. The passports were delivered on Saurday, and the Charge d'Affairs was to quit er, Ordered, That of Kent, wait on uest his attendance Paris on Monday.
