Dr. EVANS' CAMOMILE AND APERIENT PILLS. ON LOW SPIRITS.

ON LOW SPIRITS.

Low spirits is a certain state of the inind, accompanied by indig stion, wherein the greatest evils are apprehended upon the slightest grounds, and the worst consequences imagined. Ancient medical writers exposed this disease to be confined to those particular regions of the abdomen technically called hypochondria, which are situated on the right or left side of that cavity, whence comes the name hypochondriaiss.

Symptems. The common corporcal symptoms are, fatulency in the stomach or bowels, acruel eructations, costiveness, spasmodic pains and often an utter inability of fixing the attention upon any subject of importance or engaging in any thing that demands vigour or courage. Also languidness—the mind becomes irritable, thoughful, desponding, melancholy and dejected, accompanied by a total derangement of the nervous system. The mental feelings and peculiar train of ideas that haunt the imagination and overwhelm the judgment, exhibit an infinite diversity. The wisest and bost of men are as open to this affliction as the weakest.

Causes. A scientary life of any kind, especially Prepared by himself.

TO MOTHERS AND NURSES.

The passage of the Teeth through the gums produces trablesome and dangerous symptoms. It is known by asters that there is great privation in the mouth and gast during this process. The gums swell, the secretary of saliva is increased, the child is secret with freeze and the child is secret with freeze and spasms of peculiar parts; the child shrieks with extreme violence, and thrusts its fingers into its mostly. If these precursory symptoms are not speedily illeviated, spasmodic convulsions universally supervene, and soon cause the dissolution of the infant. If mothers who have their little babes afflicted with these distensing symptoms, would apply Dr. William Evans' Cabbrated Soothing Syrup, which has preserved hundreds of infants when thought past recovery, from being spilmly attacked with that fatal malady, convulsions.

Causes. A sedentary life of any kind. especially severe study, protracted to a late hour in the night, and rarely relieved by social intercourse or exercise, a dissolute habit, great excess in esting and drinking, immoderate use of mercury, violent purgatives, the suppression of some habitual discharge, (as the obstruction of the menses) or long continued cruption; relaxation or debility of one or more impostant organs within the abdomen is a frequent cause.

Treatment. The principal objects of treatment are, to remove indigestion, strengthen the body, and enliven the spirits, which may be promoted by exercise, early hours, regular meals, plessant conversation—the bodis (if costive) should be carefully regulated by the occasional use of a mild aperient. We know nothing better adapted to abdain this end, than Dr. Wm. Evans' Aperient Pills—being mild and certain in their operation. The bowels being once cleansed, his inestimide Camomilo Pills, (which are tonic, anodyne, and antispasmódic) are an infallible roundy, and without dispute have proved a great blessing to the numerous public.

Some physicians have, recommended a free use of Dr. W. Evans' Celebrated Soothing Syrup, for Children Culting their Teeth.

This infallible remedy has preserved hundreds of children, when thought past recovery, from convulsions. As soon as the Syrup is rubbed on the gums, the child will recover. This preparation is so innecent, so efficacious, and so pleasant, that no child will recover, fase to let its gums be rubbed with it. When infants are at the age of four months, though there is no appearance of teeth, one bottle of the Syrup should be seed on the gums, to open the pores. Parents should serve be without the Syrup in the nursery where there are young children; for if a child wakes in the night with pain in the gums, the Syrup immediately gives the preventing Convulsions, Fevers, &c. ran by opening the pores and healing the gums, there by preventing Convulsions, Ferers, ec.

THE BARON VON HUTCHELER HERB PILLS.

HERB PILLS.

These Pills are composed of Herbs, which exert a specific action upon the heart, give an impulse or strength to the arterial system; the blood is quickened and equalized in its circulation through all the vessels, whether of the skin, the parts situated internally, or the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent in crease of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbent and exhalent, or discharging vessels. Any morbid action which may have taken place is corrected, and obstructions are removed, the blood is purified, and the body resumes a healthful state.

These Pills, after much anxious toil and research, having been brought by the Proprietor to the present state of perfection, supersode the use of the innumerable other medicines; and are so well adapted to the frame, that the use of them, by maintaining the body in the due performance of its functions, and preserving the vital stream in a pure and healthy state, causes it to last many years longer than it otherwise would, and the mind to become so composed and tranquil, that eld age when it arrives, will appear a blessing, and not (as too many who have neglected their constitutions, or WM. the consequences which sometime follow. We cheerchily comply with his request.—N. York Sun.

to many years using that it are the mind to become so composed and tranquil, that eld age when it arrives, will appear a liesting, and not (as too many who have neglected their constitutions, or had them injured by medicines administered by ignorance) a source of misery and abhorrence.

They are so compounded, that by strengthening and equalizing the action of the heart, liver, and other viscora, they expel the bad, acrid or morbid matter, which renders the blood impure, out of the circulation, throthe excretely duets into the passage of the bowels, so that by the brisk or slight evacuations, which may be regulated by the doses of the Herr's Pills, always remembering that while the excusations from the bowels are kept up, the excret ons from all the other vessels of the body will also be going on in the same proportion, by which means the blood invarially becomes purified. ING. WITH SUMMER COMPLAINT, and by the infallible American Soothing Syrup of Dr. W. Evans. Mrs. McPherson, residing at No. 8, Nadison street, called a few days since at the medical effec of Dr. W. Evans, 100 Chatham street, N. Y. and pirchased a bottle of the Syrup for her child, who was suffering excruciating pain during the process of featition, being momentarily threatened with convulsions, its bowels too were exceedingly loose, and no food could be retained on the stomach. Almost immosistely on its application, the alarming symptoms entirely ceased, and by continuing the use of the syrup on the gums, the howels in a short time became quite thatal. As a tribute of gratitude for the benefit affection the child, the mother came of her own accordand freely sanctioned publicary to the above. Pray be particular in applying at 100 Chatham street, as thers are sweral counterfeits advertised. No other place in the city has the genine for sale.

Steady perseverance in the use of the Herb Pills will undoubtedly effect a cure even in the meet acute or obstinate disease; but in such cases the doss may be augmented, according to the inveteracy of the disease; those Pills being so admirably adapted to the constitution, that they may be taken at all times

IT IMPORTANT TO MOTHERS.—Children results suffer much uncasiness from cutting their tests. Whatever dangerous or fatal symptoms attend this process of nature, they are produced invariably from the highly irritated and inflamed condition of the parts—therefore the principal indications of cure are to abate the inflammation, and to soften, soothe, and relax the rams. If that is effected, the inflam is preserved from missquent ferrer, inflammation sympodic cough, the remaining the results of the remaining of tendons, croup, canker, and convulsions, displaying their fatal consequences. If mothers, nurse, or guardians have their babes tortured with painful and protracted dentition, and this notice attracts their attention, they should not be deterred from purchasing a battle of EVANS SOOTHING SYRUP for Children Testhing, the incomparable virtue of which in completely relieving the most distressing cases (when applied to the infant's gums as directed) is invaluable. The remedy has restored thousands of children when on the verge of the grave, to the embraces again of their fustracted parents, attacked with that awful and mortiferous malady—Convulsions.

Those who have the care and education of females, whether the studious or the sedentary part of the community, should nerre be without a supply of the Herb Pills, which remove disorders in the head, invigorate the mind, strengthen the body, improve the memory, and enliven the imagination.

When the Nervous System has been too largely drawn upon or overstrained, nothing is better to correct and invigorate the drooping constitution than these Pills. DIRECTIONS.

PPlease shake the bottle when first opened.

When children begin to be in pain with their teeth shooting in their gums, put a little of the Syrup in a taspoon, and with the finger let the child's gums be raised for two or three minutes, three times a day. It must not be put to the breast immediately for the milk would take the syrup off too soon. When the teeth are just coming through their gums, mothers should immediately apply the syrup; it will prevent the children having a faver, and undergoing that painful operation of lucing the gums, which always makes the next tooth such harder to come three and sometimes causes death. FEVER AND AGUE PILLS.

These pills, so admirably adapted to afford unifief in the different modifications of these distressibilities. These pills, so admirably adapted to afford uniform relief in the different modifications of these distressing maladies, are particularly recommended to public notice. On the accession of the cold stage, when the face and limbs of the sufferer become pale, and the sensation of cold and languor is felt pervading the whole system—their administration is accompanied with astonishing success—they soon lessen the subsequent distressing success—they soon lessen the subsequent distressing success—they soon lessen the subsequent distressing subversing and violent shaking, and by continuing in their use, (as directed), will ultimately cure the most obstinate ague. These pills are of signal utility in those distressing cases, where there is a sallowness of complexion, pain in the region of the liver, tension and distress in the epigastic rogion, with other symptoms indicating the existence of morbid action, or chronic disease of the stomach, liver, bowels, mecentery or spleen, which consequences so generally supervene from protracted intermittents. They permanently overcome those diseases—at the same time give tone to the stomach, cleanse and strengthen the bowels and impart health, vigour and energy to the system.

Many persons emigrate to the rich and fertile soil or the West, in the hope of attaining a future competen cy, but alias' ere long that hope becomes blasted, when they appear with impaired and enfeebled constitutions, resulting from attacks of that direful terror of the West, Fever and Ague. If such persons had resorted to the uses of the above pills, the sunken pallid countenance would have been restored to its florid hue, the vital energy re-established, and the whole system purified and invigorated. They are now regarded as an inestimable public blessing, and indispensable to the built, confort, and even the local prospenty of the inhabitants of many portions of our western country.

In all cares of Bilious and Nervous Fever, Hypochondrizeism, Low Spirits, Palpitations of the Heart, Nervous Irritability, N

Come listen to me, fellow citizens all, While I sing you a song about a great Ball.

A Ball which keeps relling and playing such jigs,
As are filling with terror the hearts of the Whigs.

May it roll and roll on till it goes over all, And Democracy's triumph alone stope the Ball.

The Ball rolled as well as a man could desire; When it met with obstruction it mounted up higher And higher, and begun cutting such prants, Until in New York it got JAMMED 'mong the BANES. But success to the Ball, &c.

When it got 'mong the banks, it took a recoil, And back it went rolling for many a mile; And the Whigs, when they saw it thus hop over all, Exultingly cried, "PRAY WHO'LL STOP THAT BALL?"

MISCELLANEOUS.

A STRANGE CASE OF BIGAMY.

In September a Liverpool paper informs us the police in Bury apprehended a man named Thomas Sharrocks, of Bury, overlooker of power looms, on a charge of bigamy, and he was fully committed to the New baily to take his trial at the quarter sessions. The facts are, perhaps the strangest connected with a case of bigamy on record. About four years ago, Shar-rocks married his first wife, Betty Hibbert at Redcliffe, and it appears that they lived together comfortably. It seems however, that he thought another wife would make his happiness and his household complete; and he accordingly succeeded in persuading a young woman, aged about 18 years, of prepossessing appearance, unknown to her parents, to become his second wife, and they were married on the 28th of July last. The strangeness of the transaction is, that the first wife went to her husband's second marriage, officiated as bridesmaid, and actually pulled her own wedding ring from her finger and with that ring the ceremony was perform. ed. When the man was apprehended he and the two wives were living very comfortably together, all the parties apparently unaware of the degradation to which they were reduced, for on the apprehension of Sharrocks, his wives "thought it was hard that the law could interfere with them if they were comfortable." After Sharrocks had been convicted and removed he was visited by both his wives, and the fellow there boasted that no man ever had two better wives at once, and that when he came back, he would stick to them through life, and lose his last drop of blood in their defence.
