

GHISELIN, Dr. Reverdy, one of the Honourable Council of this state, and Miss Margaret Bowie, daughter of His Excellency, the Governor, were married on Tues. evening [Dec. 25], by the Rev. Mr. Duke. (Dec. 27, 1804)

GIBSON, Mrs. Anne O., relict of the late John Gibson, Esq., of Magothy, died Mon., 6th inst. (Aug. 16, 1821)

GIBSON, George H., died at Prince Frederick, Cal. Co.; a member of the Bar of that county. (Nov. 1, 1832)

GIBSON, Mr. Horatio, died in Jan., on the north side of Severn. (Feb. 11, 1830)

GIBSON, Mr. Horatio S., and Miss Eliza Burnett, both of A. A. Co., were married Tues. evening last, by Rev. Mr. Riley. (May 28, 1829)

GIBSON, John, died at his seat near Magothy River, on Mon. morning last [Dec. 6]. (Dec. 9, 1819)

GIBSON, William, late Clerk of the Balto. Co. Court, died Sun. evening, 29th inst. (May 3, 1832)

GILES, Edward, died last Mon. night, in Annap., one of the Delegates to Congress from this state. (March 13, 1783)

GILL, Elizabeth, a young woman, was killed by lightning which struck the house of Mrs. Buchanan, widow of Dr. Buchanan, about three miles from Balto. Town, on Mon. last. (July 30, 1752)

GILL, Richard, son of Richard W., and Anne E. Gill, died in Annap., 3rd inst., aged two years and six months. (Oct. 11, 1838)

GILL, Richard W., of Balto. City, and Miss Ann E. Deale, of Annap., were married Thurs. evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Pinckney. (May 14, 1835)

GILLILAND, William, last Friday se'ennight was shot through the head and was scalped near Fort Frederick. (Dec. 23, 1756)

GILLIS, Capt. Ezekiel, died Mon. evening last [Jan. 9], at his plantation near Annap., after a tedious indisposition for above seven months; in the 51st year of his age; one of the gentlemen for the commission of the peace of this county. (Jan. 11, 1749)

GLASGOW, Rev. Mr. Patrick, died Thurs. last [March 15], in Wor. Co., the rector of Allhallows Parish in that county. (March 22, 1753)

GLOVER, Edmund, died in Annap. on Thurs. last, in his 26th year. (March 16, 1826)