National Democratic Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT,

JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE,

OF KENTUCKY.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

Gen. JOSEPH LANE,

OF OREGON.

Democratic Electoral Ticket.

For the State at Large:

E. LOUIS LOWE, of Frederick county;
J. LLOYD MARTIN, of Talbot county.

For the Districts:

ELIAS GRISWOLD, of Dorchester Co.;
J. BROOKE BOYLE, of Carroll Co.;
JOSHUA VANSANT, of Baltimore city;
T. PARKIN SCOTT, of Baltimore city;
JOHN RITCHIE, of Frederick Co.;
JAS. A. FRANKLIN, of A. Arundel Co.

MARYLAND DOUGLAS CONVENTION.—Since the last issue of our paper, we have received the proceedings of an assemblage, assuming to act for the Democratic party of Maryland, held in the city of Baltimore, which proceedings are so much at war with the best interests of the Democratic party, that we feel compelled to advert to it, and warn the Democracy of Montgomery county against the dangerous and insidious pretensions promulgated by these would-be mighty men and followers of Mr. Douglas.

With loud professions of Democratic orthodoxy—with declarations of devotedness and attachment to Democratic principles, and with a seeming disinterested and self-sacrificing spirit, they swear eternal fealty to the Democratic party of the nation, and raise their hands in holy horror at what they are pleased to call the "defections of those in whom the Democracy of the State reposed confidence;" yet, with well directed blows, and with malice prepense, would stab to the heart and drain the last drop of life's blood from the great Democratic party of the country.

The designs and intentions of this self-constituted body of pretended immaculate Democrats and self-complacent time-servers, is apparent enough to every one who has observed events as they have transpired since the disruption of the Democratic National Convention. Cover it over as they may with resolutions of fealty to the Democratic party—resolve what they may, their real intention is to divide the Democracy of Maryland—to break up its organization, and to surrender the State to the control of Know-nothingism or Black-republicanism, whichever offers most or bids highest for their aid and co-operation.

We would not offend our Douglas Democrats, (if they will accept the appellation,) by supposing that any one of them would vote directly for Mr. Bell or Mr. Lincoln for the Presidency, in preference to Mr. Breckinridge, but we would respectfully suggest to them, that they effectually do that very thing by throwing their votes for Mr. Douglas, when his greatest admirer and most ardent supporter—the very head and front of the Douglas movement in Maryland—declares from the public stand, "that there is no hope of his success." If there is no hope of his success, why thus divide the Democratic party, and peril and endanger its success? Better, far better, hold fast to your Democratic brethren with whom you have so often, in days past, gone to battle, and with whom you have so often borne off in triumph the palm of victory.

When Miles Taylor, the Chairman of the Douglas "National" Executive Committee, issued his circular, soon after the nomination of Mr. Douglas, we said he was a bad adviser and dangerous counsellor; and we regret that subsequent events have verified our opinion as then expressed. In that address the intentions of the friends of Mr. Douglas were shadowed forth, and it is with great sorrow that we observe them being carried out throughout the country. The edict went forth that there was to be no union with the Breckinridge Democrats, but rather a union with Know-nothings or Republicans; indeed, with any political organization inimical to the Democratic party, which would be most conducive to its defeat and destruction. In Kentucky, we find them openly fusing with the old Know-nothing party, against the regular Democratic nominee, and this fusion openly avowed by the Douglas papers, and the successful Know-nothing candidate publicly thanking his Douglas allies for their invaluable services during the campaign. We find again, in New York, a union of the Bell and Douglas parties, and a joint ticket of Douglasites and Know-nothings presented; and again, in Virginia, we find that the friends of Mr. Douglas refuse to unite with the supporters of Mr. Breckinridge, and assume professedly and apparently an independent course, and run an out-and-out Douglas ticket—perhaps they think the better way to assist the opposition by separating from the great body of the Democratic party and maintaining a separate organization.

And now here, in Maryland, we find this same insidious game is to be played; and it can no longer be doubted, that the leading and master-spirits of the Douglas interest, in Maryland, have ceased to be Democrats, and are willfully and deliberately engaged in a crusade for the overthrow of the Democratic party.

Most reluctantly, and with great regret, are we forced to the conclusions which we have expressed; and in parting, politically, with the miserable demagogues who have brought about the melancholy condition in which the Democratic party is now, we turn with confidence to the people, the honest and patriotic yeomanry of the Democratic party, and appeal to them in this our hour of need, and of our country's difficulties and dangers!

We, with pleasure, recur to the trials which we, side by side, have encountered and overcome—to the many conflicts through which we have battled, shoulder to shoulder—to the many victories which we have won, and the many trophies which we, companions in conflict and fortune, in triumph, have gained after hard fought battles. We appeal to you with confidence, if you have prejudices or predilections, lay them aside, and forget them. Think of the issue in which we are engaged. Think of the cause of your country, and rally, united, and vote for BRECKINRIDGE and LANE.

The N. Y. Tribune says: "KENNETH RAYNER, so long the Whig Chevalier Bayard in North Carolina, is out for Breckinridge."

THE RUMORED DECLINATION OF MR. BRECKINRIDGE.—Washington correspondents of the New York papers have been busy for some weeks past in putting forth statements that Mr. BRECKINRIDGE was about to withdraw his name. The following note published in the Constitution, of Saturday last, settles the question:

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC EX. COM. ROOMS,
No. 28 Four-and-a-half Street,
Washington City, D. C., Aug. 17, 1860.

To WM. M. BROWNE, Esq.,
Editor of the Constitution.

MY DEAR SIR: I have just received your note of this date.

The report of the withdrawal of Mr. Breckinridge is a pure invention, put in circulation for mischievous purposes. The correspondence of this committee with Mr. Breckinridge and his friends in Kentucky require at my hands this positive and authoritative denial.

Truly, yours,
ISAAC I. STEVENS,
Chairman.

ADDRESS OF THE NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—On the first page of to-day's issue, we commence the publication of the address issued by the National Democratic Executive Committee, of which Hon. I. I. STEVENS is chairman. This address is a most able, truthful, and instructive document. It sets forth with clearness and force the clauses which led to the withdrawal of all true National Democrats from the Front Street Theatre at Baltimore; exposes the absurdity of the alleged regularity of Mr. Douglas' nomination; lays bare the tricks by which that nomination was effected; and gives, in succinct form, an admirable review of the political questions now in issue before the people. Every Democrat ought to read it. The honest searcher after truth cannot fail to be convinced by its array of facts and powerful arguments.

VIRGINIA STATE CONVENTIONS.—The National Democratic State Convention, called by the proper authorities, which assembled at Charlottsville, on the 16th instant, adjourned on Saturday last, as did also the Douglas Convention, which assembled at Staunton. No compromise was effected between them, and each nominated an electoral ticket. The Douglas convention nominated a ticket of almost unknown men, and men generally of little ability. The Charlottsville convention filled the five vacancies in the ticket already chosen, by selecting Senators MASON and HUNTER, and ex-Governors SMITH and WISE, and Mr. RUSSELL. The BRECKINRIDGE electoral ticket now before the people may be safely said to be the ablest Virginia ever had. That she will cast her electoral vote for Breckinridge at the presidential election there can be no doubt.

MISSOURI ELECTION.—It is claimed by the Douglas papers, and other prints hostile to the democracy, that the Missouri election is a great triumph for squatter sovereignty. This is untrue. C. F. Jackson and the whole ticket stand upon a platform emphatically denying the right of a territorial legislature to make laws unfriendly to the introduction of slave property. During the winter the general assembly passed resolutions approving Mr. BUCHANAN'S Administration and re-affirming that principle which became the ground of secession at the Charleston and Baltimore Conventions; and this action of the general assembly has been ratified by the people by sending back an overwhelming majority of Breckinridge men. Of the State ticket which has been elected by over six thousand three of the candidates were avowed Breckinridge men: Benj. F. Massey, secretary of State; J. W. Morrison, secretary of the treasury; and Wm. S. Moseley, auditor. The latter, in a letter dated July 28, holds the following language: "Had Judge Douglas received the nomination upon the majority platform at Charleston I would have supported him cheerfully. On the other hand, I can cheerfully support Kentucky's noble son, J. C. BRECKINRIDGE, and Indiana's old war-horse, JOE LANE, believing them to be as true Union, constitutional patriots as are in the land. I am willing to sink or swim in company with such tried men as our venerable President, Thompson, Cobb, Dickinson, Orr, and a large majority of the senators and representatives in Congress, who have always been true and consistent democrats.

"A reaction is taking place in Missouri, particularly in the southeast of the State.—The cry of seceders and disunionists is losing its potency, and the name of Breckinridge is finding its way into the hearts of the masses."

THE "REGULAR NOMINEE."—The advocates of Mr. DOUGLAS are claiming that he is the "regular nominee" of the Democratic party. Just so. But at the recent election in Kentucky, for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, every Douglas man voted for the opposition candidate, and thus defeated the regular nominee of the Democracy of that State. This fact is openly avowed by them, and they are glorying over it! Will any Maryland Democrat doubt any longer as to who is the "regular" candidate of his party for next President?

ALL A MISTAKE.—An opposition journal says:

"John C. Breckinridge is the man who took Kentucky away from the opposition. And he is the man who has given her back to us."

John C. Breckinridge did take Kentucky away from the opposition, but it was squatter sovereignty that gave her back, and squatter sovereignty will continue her in the opposition ranks unless she is again rescued by John C. Breckinridge.

UPPER MARLBOROUGH, Md., Aug. 17, 1860.

The organization in this State, as you know, has declared out and out for BRECKINRIDGE and LANE. The Douglas meeting was totally irregular. Representations of friends in Baltimore as to the state of parties, give good ground for hope of carrying the State by a good majority, for Breckinridge. Some people do not think so on account of past elections in Baltimore. That is all changed. In this county there are not a dozen Douglasites.—Cor. Constitution.

MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE CANAL.—The President and Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, had a meeting at Berkley Springs, Va., on Tuesday of last week, and among other proceedings, we observe that the Board decided by a vote of five to two, not to advance the toll twenty-five cents per ton on coal.

DOUGLAS ELECTORAL TICKET.—The following is the Douglas electoral ticket for this State:

For the State at Large.—Wm. P. Maulsby, and John H. Howard.

Districts.—G. W. P. Smith, Wm. D. Stephenson, Milton N. Taylor, Henry May, Wm. Walsh, and Henry E. Wootton.

ACTION OF THE PENNSYLVANIA DOUGLASITES.—The Douglas State committee had a meeting at Harrisburg on Wednesday of last week, and adopted resolutions to run a straight Douglas ticket in that State.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN RICHARD CRABB.—The Annapolis Republican says: Again the mournful duty devolves upon us of recording the death of another of our most prominent and influential citizens, Capt. RICHARD CRABB.—The unexpected announcement of his death (after an illness of but a few days) has cast the shade of gloom over this entire community. Universally respected and beloved, the regrets of his fellow-citizens are only equalled by the grief of his numerous relatives.

TERRIFIC STORM IN LEESBURG, VA.—On Saturday night last the town of Leesburg, Va., was visited by one of the most violent storms that has passed over that section of the State for thirty years. The Alexandria Gazette says:

"The wind was extremely violent, the lightning and thunder fiercer than it has been known for years, and the rain fell in floods that deluged the town, driving every one within doors. At one time the water ran along King street in such floods that the street presented the appearance of a creek. All the cellars are filled, and a considerable amount of damage done in various portions of the town. A hail-storm also accompanied the rain, and the corn, in many places, was cut to pieces. Fences were blown down, and much other damage done to the farms in the range of the storm."

The same storm was very violent in the lower part of Frederick county, Md., prostrating fences and forest trees, and doing other damage.

THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL AND THE COAL QUESTION.—The National Intelligencer, of Saturday last, says:

"Wednesday was appointed for the meeting of the four Commissioners of the Public Works of Maryland, viz: Messrs. Roberts, Reynolds, Duke and Schley, but we learn that no meeting took place. The general inference seems to be that the proposed increase of tolls on coal is not considered desirable for the canal, and as the Baltimore and Ohio railroad interest evince no wish that such increase should take place, it will not probably be further agitated. We hear that the canal is in good navigable order throughout, and coal is constantly arriving down at tide-water.

THE WHEAT CROP.—The wheat crop of 1860 is the largest that has yet been produced. In all the Western States, excepting the western part of Missouri and a portion of Kansas, where it was injured by the drought, the story of the crop is the same wonderful and gratifying one—wheat unprecedented in size and an unprecedented abundance in the general yield.

NEW YORK POLITICS.—The State executive committee of the National Union party of New York on Tuesday last, held the first meeting of a series of semi-monthly meetings to be held hereafter, and adopted a resolution cordially approving of the union electoral ticket made up by the Bell and Douglas party of the State.

THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—The National Intelligencer states that the directors at their late meeting at Berkely Springs issued an order stopping steamboats from navigating the canal, on account of the injuries they do the banks. They also reduced the tolls on wheat.

THE PRESIDENT AT BEDFORD.—President Buchanan arrived at Bedford Springs on Friday of last week, in excellent health. He was warmly greeted by the visitors and citizens. Attorney General Black arrived there on Thursday.

TEXAS ELECTION.—Dispatches from Galveston, under date of 18th instant, state that Flournoy, the Democratic candidate on the Breckinridge ticket for Attorney General, is elected thereby, and will doubtless be elected by a large majority.

It is much to be feared that the "glass of fashion" is the wine glass.

The Markets.

BALTIMORE, Wednesday, Aug. 22, 1860.

GRAIN.—Some 25,600 bushels Wheat were offered on 'Change this morning, and prices were steady at 1 10@1 30 for common to fair white, 1 35@1 45 for fair to good do., 1 50@1 60 for prime to choice, and $1 65 per bushel for strictly choice; red sold at 120@1 30 per bushel for fair to prime. Corn was again in moderate supply, only some 6,500 bushels being offered, and white sold at 74@76 cts, and yellow at 68@70 cts for good to prime; and a choice lot of 112 bushels yellow sold at 73 cts per bushel. Some 2,500 bushels Oats sold at 30@34 cts for Maryland, and 39@42 cts per bushel for good to prime old Pennsylvania.—A lot of 100 bushels Maryland Rye sold at 72 cts, and 100 bushels Pennsylvania at 80 cts per bushel.

Death.

DEPARTED this life, at the residence of her mother, Mrs. ELIZABETH BRADDOCK, in this town, on Friday, the 17th instant, Mrs. ANNE McCORMICK, consort of WILLIAM T. McCORMICK, of Baltimore city, in the 40th year of her age.

The subject of this notice had for a long time labored under bronchial disease, and had lately left the crowded and heated city for the quiet country, in the hope that the change would do her good. But the grim monster followed her, and his fell hand struck her down, but not until she was ripe for Heaven. She was a consistent and exemplary member of the Christian Church, with which she held communion for several years. Her walk and conversation were in accordance with the religion of her meek and lowly Saviour, in whose bright and glorious realms she has found rest from the trials and cares of this wicked world. She was remarkable for gentleness and amiability, and exhibited to all with in her influence, kindness of heart, and that charity which springs spontaneous from the heart of the faithful Christian. She was a devoted wife, a kind and doting mother—ardent and affectionate in her attachment to relatives and friends. She was truly beloved by all who knew her, for her many virtues and deep piety. She is lost to earth, deeply regretted by her husband, children and friends, whose sorrow, it is consoling to reflect, is not without hope.

It may be truly said of our departed friend, "A good mother has fallen in Israel." Of her virtues we cannot too highly speak. In life they shed a bright lustre over her daily pathway; and when death was playing upon her heart-strings the song of dissolution, they sweetened the sad strain and gave strong assurance to her surviving friends that she would soon be at rest in the bosom of her Father and her God. Although her body was racked with pain, and sympathetic tears dropped gently all around her dying pillow, her soul was rejoicing in the glorious hope of immortality beyond the grave. Jesus was precious to her soul as it stood on the starting point for the eternal world. She seemed to gather a cluster of heavenly fruit as she looked over into the promised land. She had a sweet foretaste of celestial joys, as she waited to be cut loose from earth, that she might fly away to Heaven. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord." Her death was triumph. Her Saviour supported her faltering footsteps across the dark river; his rod and his staff, they comforted her.

To the bereaved companion and sorrowing relatives of the departed one, we would fain say a word of consolation. What is your loss is an everlasting and glorious gain to her. God called her home; her mission was accomplished. Would you stay the willing hand when the harvest is fully ripe? No; nor would you call the loved one back to all the cares and sorrows of earth. The world is full of beauty, but Heaven is far more beautiful. Earth and earthly glory pale before the beaming splendor which emanates from the throne of Jehovah. "Cast your care on Him, who careth for you," and out of his pavilion hear him say, "I will not leave you comfortless."

BAUGH'S RAW-BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

ANALYSIS:

7 to 8 Per Cent. of Ammonia, and 54 Per Cent. Bone-Phosphate of Lime.

FOR FALL SEEDING it is a most invaluable manure, being made from pure Raw-Bone.

IT ACTS DIRECTLY—bringing forward the young shoots of the grain and grass, giving them a vigorous growth, healthy color, and imparting strength and stamina.

IT IMPROVES THE LAND PERMANENTLY. It does not, like Peruvian Guano, stimulate the growing crop, and leave the soil exhausted, but leaves the land permanently benefitted.

FARMERS AND PLANTERS GIVE IT A TRIAL.

It is rapidly working its way into favor, and is a reliable fertilizer.

Price $45 per ton of 2,000 lbs., in Baltimore, in strong sacks of 160 lbs. each.
