So the question was resolved in the affirmative, and the bill was passed.

On motion by Mr. John W. Thomas, the following order was twice read, viz.

Ordered, That it be entered upon the journal that Mr. Thompson's absence from the house, is on account of severe indisposition.

On motion by Mr. Stevens, the name of Mr. Winchester; and on motion by Mr. Bennett, the name of Mr. Reyner, were directed to be inserted in said order, and it was then adopted.

The house then adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.

TUESDAY. January 23d. 1827.

The house met. Were present, the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read

The bill, entitled, An act to abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the time and manner of electing the senate, and the mode of filling up vacancies in that body, so that each county and the city of Baltimore may have a senator, to be elected immediately by the people, passed by this house yesterday, was sent to the senate for its concurrence.
