

Rule 29.—No member shall vote on any question in any case where he was not present when the vote was taken without leave of the Convention; and upon a division and count of the Convention on any question, no member without the bar shall be counted.

Rule 30.—Every member who shall be in the Convention when the question is put shall give his vote, unless the Convention, for special reasons, shall excuse him; and the refusal of any member present to vote, on calling the yeas and nays, shall be noted on the Journal at the request of any member.

Rule 31.—No member, without the permission of the Convention, shall answer on the yeas and nays who did not divide on the question; and if any member divide on one side and answer on the other on calling the yeas and nays, the same shall be noted on the Journal at the request of any member.

Rule 32.—No member shall take out of the Convention any paper belonging to the Convention without leave of the President.

Rule 33.—Any member, on motion, or in debate, may call for the reading of any law, journal, record, or other public proceedings, which may relate to the subject matter.

Rule 34.—The name of every member making a motion, presenting any petition, memorial or other paper, proposing any resolution, order or other matter, shall be inserted on the Journal; but if any motion or proposition be withdrawn, all proceedings relating immediately thereto shall be expunged from the Journal.

Rule 35.—While the President is putting any question or addressing the Convention, none shall walk out or cross the Hall; nor, in such case, or while a member is speaking, shall hold private discourse, so as to interrupt debate.

Rule 36.—When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the President; or, being in writing, it shall be handed to the chair and read aloud by the Secretary before debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing if the President or any member require it.

Rule 37.—When a motion is made and seconded, or when a question is under debate, the matter shall receive a determination by the question; or it may be postponed by a motion to adjourn, to lie on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or amend, to postpone indefinitely, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged.
