

the Court of any of said officers, or members who shall demand or receive any bribe, fee, reward or testimonial for the performance of his official duties or for neglecting or failing to perform the same; and also, to provide by law for compelling any person so bribing or attempting to bribe or so demanding or receiving a bribe, fee, reward or testimonial to testify against any person or persons who may have committed any of said offences; provided that any person so compelled to testify, shall be exempted from trial and punishment for the offence of which he may have been guilty, and any person convicted of such offence shall, as part of the punishment thereof, be forever disfranchised and disqualified from holding any office of trust or profit in this State.

Sec. 47. The personal property of residents of this State, shall be subject to taxation in the county or city where the resident bona fide resides for the greater part of the year for which the tax may or shall be levied, and not elsewhere, except leasehold property and goods and chattels permanently located, which shall be taxed in the city or county where they are so located.

Sec. 48. The General Assembly shall have power to pass all such laws as may be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the powers vested by this Constitution, in any department or office of the Government and the duties imposed upon them thereby.

Which was read the first time, and

Ordered to be printed.

The Convention took up for consideration the unfinished business of yesterday, being the report of the Committee to report upon the Declaration of Rights;

The question recurring upon the fourth Article,

Mr. Alvey submitted the following amendment:

After the end of the last line, add:

“As a free sovereign and independent State.”

Mr. Hayden submitted the following amendment:

Strike out the words “ought to,” in first line,

Which was adopted.

The question then recurring upon the amendment submitted by Mr. Alvey,

Mr. Rennolds demanded the yeas and nays,

The demand being sustained,
