

THE Presbyterian church in the city of Baltimore, created and declared to be, a body politic and corporate, by the name, style and title, of The Committee of the Presbyterian church in the city of Baltimore.—1797, c. 58.

PRINTER TO THE STATE.

THE printer of the state, on the receipt of the votes and proceedings, and the laws and resolutions, shall print, stitch and pack up, under the direction of the governor and council, as many copies thereof as shall be sufficient for the following persons and purposes: one copy of the laws and resolutions, and one copy of the votes and proceedings of each branch of the legislature, for the governor and council, and for each member of the general assembly; one copy of the laws and resolutions, well bound in blue boards, and four copies of the said votes and proceedings, for the clerk of each respective county, to be deposited in his office for the use of the county courts, and for the inspection and information of the people; one copy of the laws and resolutions for each of the judges and justices of the peace within this state respectively, and for the attorney-general; one copy of the laws and resolutions for the register in chancery, and for the register of wills in each respective county, and for the clerk of the general court on the western and eastern shore respectively, and for the respective treasurers, to be retained by them for the use of their respective offices; and the same shall be packed up by him, and directed accordingly; and he shall completely print and stitch the number of copies required by this act, and deposite the same, carefully packed up, sealed and directed, in the council chamber, in the care of the clerk of the council, within the space of 60 days after the receipt of the original copies, and take a receipt from the clerk of the council for the same, under forfeiture of 50l. current money for every neglect, to be recovered and applied as other penalties and forfeitures, and shall moreover forfeit his allowance or salary as printer of the state.—1790, c. 51, § 3.

P R O C E S S C I V I L.

ANY persons within this province, may order out process in their own names, without any titling from an attorney; and the clerks of the provincial and county courts shall on application to them, issue such writs; the parties demanding the same (if non-residents) giving security for fees.—1716, c. 20, § 2. See Government, 9.