1. In all cases where an interlocutory judgment is entered in the general court, or in any of the county courts, whereby the right of the plaintiff is established, but the damages sustained by him cannot be ascertained without the intervention of a jury, the court where such judgment is given may and shall, on the motion of the plaintiff, or of his attorney, make an order in the nature of a writ of inquiry, to charge the jury attending at the same, or at the next term, to inquire of the damages and costs sustained by the plaintiff in such action, which said inquiry shall be made, and the evidence given, in open court, in the same manner, and under the same regulations, as in other jury trials; and after the said jury, charged as aforesaid, shall have considered thereof, they shall forthwith return their inquisition, under their hands and seals, and thereupon the said court shall proceed to judgment, as upon inquisitions of that kind returned by the sheriff.—1794, c. 46, § 2.

2. The act for the amendment of the law, and the speedier advancement of justice in relation to the assessing of damages, repealed.—ibid.
