(b) 1715, ch. 47, November, 1766, ch. 14.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen in some of the courts of justice of this state, whether the time limited by laws heretofore made for the enrolment of deeds and conveyances should be computed by lunar or calendar months, and the computation by calendar months being most agreeable to the common acceptation of the word month, and great inconvenience might arise to many of the inhabitants of this state by a different computation; Preamble.

II. BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED AND DECLARED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all cases where the enrolment of deeds is directed by law to be made within six months from the day of the date of the same deeds, the said months shall be deemed and taken, and are hereby declared to be calendar months. To be deemed calendar months.

C H A P. XI.
An ACT to enable the corporation of the city of Annapolis to sell certain lands, to lay a further tax on property within the said city and its precincts, to regulate and license ordinaries and retailers of spirituous liquors within the said city and the precincts thereof. Lib. TBH. No. 1. fol. 13.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the memorial of the corporation of the said city of Annapolis, that Temple and Dean-streets in the said city are unnecessary and useless, wherefore they pray that the corporation of the said city, and their successors, may be enabled to sell the same; that the power given by act of assembly to lay a tax, not exceeding six-pence in any one year for every hundred pounds of property within the said city, to defray the expences of the city, and the repairs of the streets and dock, is inadequate for the purpose, wherefore they pray that the said corporation, and their successors, may be enabled to lay such further tax, not exceeding five shillings in any one year for every hundred pounds of property within the said city or the precincts thereof; that many of the apprentices, servants and slaves, in the said city, are corrupted, and their masters deprived of their labour, and injured in their property, by the selling of rum and other spirits to them by the ordinary-keepers and the great number of other retailers of spirituous liquors within the city, wherefore they pray that the power of regulating ordinaries and retailers of spirituous liquors within the city and the precincts thereof may be hereafter vested in the said corporation, Preamble.
