

By his Excellency Robert Wright Esquire Governor of Maryland

A Proclamation

Whereby it hath been represented to me on oath that the Saw Mill of James Carroll, Esquire, erected for the purpose of cutting Mahogany, near the city of Baltimore, was on Monday the Eighth Instant consumed by fire: and Whereas it has been also represented that it is feared this Villainy has been intentionally perpetrated by some wicked incendiary, or incendiaries, and whereas application has been made to me to issue a Proclamation, offering a Pardon to any Person being an accomplice shall discover his or her associate or associates I have therefore thought proper for pursuance of the powers vested in me by law, to issue this my Proclamation thereby offering full and free pardon to any person being an accomplice in the commission of the said crime who shall discover the perpetrator or perpetrators of thereof, that they or any of them be brought to Justice.
Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland at the City of Annapolis this fifteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one Thousand Eight Hundred and seven: and of the Independence of the United States of America the Thirtyfirst

By his Excellency's Command

Memian Pinkney
Clerk of the Council
