

tably represented to me that the said Jane Harris of of the age of fifteen years and till now of good character and the articles alleged to be stolen being by her return in a certain degree in her case the offence may be considered in the nature of a breach of trust - I have therefore thought proper to order and direct that all Proceedings at law against the said Jane Harris do cease and discontinue and that no further prosecution be had or continued against her for or concerning the same - Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland at the city of Annapolis, this fourteenth day of July in the
