

fined each fifty Dollars, and sentenced to three months imprisonment, except samuel Davidson who was fined Twenty Dollars, and sentenced to be imprisoned one month. all of whom, at the expiration of their respective imprisonments, are further sentenced to enter into a recognizance before the Court or one of the Justices of the same, in the like sum of five Hundred Dollars each, with security in the like sum of five Hundred Dollars to keep the peace and be of good behaviour for the term of twelve months. - and whereas the said John M^c Daniel, George Wallstager, Barney Jordan, Joseph S Crane, John Bryan, Jacob Cable, John Gidelman, and Samuel Davidson, have petitioned for a Pardon of said sentence, in which a number of the most respectable citizens of Baltimore have united: and whereas it has been proved by satisfactory testimony, that said Beaty is a British subject who lately deserted from the Island of Bermuda; that the said Beaty abused the Americans, declaring them a set of rebels, offspring of convicts, transported for theveng, murder and treason - that the President and Congress were a set of French Jacobins, that they supplied Bonaparte with money to carry on his war - that if a war should take place between this country and great Britain he would join great Britain, and fight against this country: - and whereas it has been represented that all the said persons are native Americans, mostly shoemakers. that the said Beaty is a shoemaker, and that they warned him against such a base, declaring they would tar and feather him - that he persisted in it, and that in consequence of that insult they committed said offence: - and whereas, at this crisis, when our national honour is insulted by Great Britain, our citizens under their influence murdered, in the execution of our laws, and the murderers rescued by force from condign punishment; when by proclamation the King of Great Britain has invited our citizens to violate the laws and treasonably give aid and comfort to our Enemy - a spark of honest