

Instructions for ³ John Henry Carsey in Execution of his Commission for Treaty with the Susquehannock & Muningo Indians &c.

Sup^{ts}.

Francis Jones

Thomas Mottley

You are with all convenient Speed to begin your journey towards New York by the way of New Castle upon Delaware in order to your going unto Albany there to treat with the Muningo Indians; & at your Arrival at New Castle to signify to the Deputy Governor there for the time being in general terms that you are sent to Conclude by the means to come to a Treaty with the Muningo Indians at short Albany or elsewhere as opportunity shall offer. And you are there to endeavour to informe your selfe from say^t Justice & others of the true State of the Susquehannocks, what number they are, upon what termes they are received by the Muningo's, whether there be not any of them that are not submitted to the Muningo's if any such be, under whose protection they live, & how they may be treated withall in order to the setting an universal peace betwixt as the Susquehannanocks Muningo's & the rest of the Indians to the Northward, as also betwixt the said Indians & all the Lowland Indians in League & amity with us.

In case any of the Muningo's Troops be near New Castle at your being there, you are to endeavour to speak with them, & to let them know that you are upon your Voyage to Albany to treat with their Rulers there of a firm peace, & to obtaine if possible a cessation of arms at least if you can betwixt them & all his Ma^{ties} Subjects in these parts, & for all Indians in these parts now in amity with his said Ma^{ties} Subjects.

You are next to apply your selfe to the Governor of New York & rendering him thanks for the civilities he hath shewn to this his Lordships Government to desire him to assist you in procuring a Treaty for you with the said Muningo Indians (and
