

1648
knew not, & came out to of Judge, or Court, to express his dissent to of Verdict. The Opinion of of Court is, for of part, of of part. shall not be grounded. But the Court will take time, to consider, & inform themselves what ought to be done in of case.

Octob. 6.

June 13. 1648.
Nicolas Caspini aged upwards 40 years, sayth upon his oath, of of of of of of Kent, being at S. Mares w. a shallop, not long afore Jangle his rayding of of rebellion here in this province, & being to returne againe for Kent, he
1. Edward Bogle of this Dept. as much Baron, as by agreement he was to pay
150. Tob. & up, for of years following: & further he deposed not.

Jurat. Coram Gov.

June 19. 1648.
The Dep. of Jane Hopewell aged 20 years or thereabouts taken at S. Mares afore Thomas Greene Esq. Gov.

This Dep. sayth, to some 2 or 3 months afore Rich: Jangle came into this province left, & rayded rebel. here, she heard one John Water seruit. to Nic:
Caspini, say & acknowledge in his of house, to he had from of home for years to serve of Nic: Caspini his master. But to hee would send seruit out of of & further she sayth not.

June 13. 1648.
Jane Hopewell sayth upon her oath, to some time of of summer in of years 1648, she heard Richard White say & acknowledge, to hee did owe & stand indebted unto Nic: Caspini 200. Tob. & of att of of he would honestly pay it. And further she sayth not.
Caspini End.

Jurat. Coram Gov.

Charles Rowlyson (att of request of Thomas Baker) sayth upon his oath, that in of beginning of of plunder, this Dep. being at of of house (Walter Creville & Tho: Baker coming thither) saw of of Creville, deliver unto of of Baker an yearling Bull calfe (uttering words to of purpose in this Dept. hearing)
I freely give to Tho: Baker, an yearling Bull calfe. And of of Beasts, wch was of calfe, he verily believeth he knoweth now, & is marked underheads of one ear & underheads likewise on of other ear, wch a little bit left under of ear, to maketh it not a of underheads) & out one of of ear a little round bit ken out from of top of of ear. But what mark it had, at of home when of of Creville gave it, he knoweth not. & further he sayth not.

Jurat. Giles Brent.

Charly Rowlyson

Blanch Olier deposed dem. And further addeth. That being present afore, when of calfe was given, she hath and since borne it in memory, & noted particularly to this is of Beasts, wch is demanded, when she hath sent him, at severall times, since of time.

Jurat. Coram Giles Brent.

B.
Blanch Olier