

that with the gift of his knowledge and he doth verily think he heard his L^{ty} say before his Departure for England that ^{the} Gold Tailor told him he had taken a Bond from Frauncey for the ball of his acct. but would not let Burgo know of it.

They proceed to examine the first Article of the acct. further pasted over being 15386: two for ball of acct. last made up, which being in the precedent years acct. or ball thereof as in all probability appears the said Burgo they conceive not chargeable therein unless he was formerly and became bound with the Frauncey in the Sheriff's Bond that year also. -

W^{ch} Gold Tailor being called affirmeth was so. - But Gold Burgo refused to own the same and insist upon the proofs thereof w^{ch} made to their Hon^{rs}.

The Sheriff's Bonds for every year of Frauncey's Sheriffship were produced of which it appeared that Gold Burgo was bound with Frauncey in the years 1680 & 1681: so that the first Article of the acct. passed and allowed for good.

The sum of the acct. & the debts thereof left till next Gro^{ve} Court according to the following order (viz^t.)

By the Council March 5th 1686.

Tailor & Burgo
referred

Ordered that the stating and adjusting the acct. between the Hon^{ble} Gold Thomas Tailor and Gold W^m Burgo by them referred to the Board, and the further debate and consideration thereof be referred until the next Gro^{ve} Court, and that in the mean time the said Gold Tailor be desired at his leisure to produce his books of acct. to the Hon^{ble} Gold W^m Digger at the City of St. Mary for him to inspect and peruse, take copies and make report to the Board of what he shall think necessary for their better information and right in the business in