John Hewellin humbly moves the Board that whereas heretofore his Lordship the right Hon^{le} the Lord Baltimore upon the humble Petition of Audry Cocks formerly the Widow and Relict of Will^m Cocks deceased and now wife to him the said John Hewellin, had granted unto her as of his free Gift a certain tract of Land of 500 Acres lying in Langfords Bay in Kent County late the Land of the said William Cocks decd but Escheatable to his Lordship for want of heirs of the said decd provided the same should be found accordingly to Escheate to his Lordship and that in order thereunto his Lordships Writ of Mandamus had issued to make Enquiry into the premises, that by Virtue thereof a Jury of Inquest had been summoned who had been upon the premises and upon due
