

Jewellin one of their Majestys Justices of S^t Marys County made oath upon the holy Evangelists that the above Relation as to to the Sum & Substance thereof is true and just in every particular differing only perhaps in the wording thereof but as near as he can possibly remember agreeing therewith

Jurat die et ann^o Supra dict coram me

J. Jewellin
Maryland

I Philip Synes of S^t Marys County in the Prov^o of Maryland aged about forty three Years having formerly had some communication with one M^r Philip Shapleigh of North umberland County in the Colony of Virginia and one Goss Mas^r of a Ship or Vessel the said Philip Shapleigh and the said Goss did tell your Deputy Philip Synes that the said Shapleigh was bound for the said Goss in a bond for one thousand pounds to the King that the said Goss should go for England with a Ship or Vessel he was then Master of according to the tenor of such bonds usually taken and that he the said Shapleigh being so bound by bringing to M^r Randolph the said Goss, said M^r Randolph did discharge him the said Shapleigh from the Bond wherein he was Bound to the King as aforesaid & also the said Goss told your Deputy that M^r Randolph had discharged him and given him the said Goss leave to go home with the Vessel he was then Mas^r of lying in Somerset County, in the province aforesaid & accordingly as your Deputy hath heard the said Goss Mas^r of the said ship or Vessel departed with his said ship or Vessel accordingly from this Province Witness my hand this ²⁰fourth day of October 1692

The Contents of the above written was sworn to by the abovesaid Philip Synes this 24th Day of October 1692 before us

Phil. Synes

W^o Blakiston
Rich Greenberry
Tho^s Tench

The Deposition of Gilbert Clarke aged thirty eight Years or therea bout.