

as being Inclosed therein and read at the same time is therefore here entered as follows viz^t

The Examination of Rob^t Drury upon his oath as follows

That Monsieur Casteine formerly Gov^r of Canada (as he is informed) when Sr Edmond Andros put up the Kings Standard in the river of St Croes in the French Dominions as supposed that this Mons^r Casteine took no care to oppose humane notice being given thereof to the French King he sends in with strict orders for his being brought over for France, but this Mons^r Casteine having notice of it flies among the Indians to a Fort called Penobscott near unto a River called St Georges in the King of Englands Territorys where he contracted Matrimony with an Indian Woman sister to Mawdocheaw and the great Sagamore in those Northern Parts and when the troubles was in New Engl this Deponent was informed by severall Persons who had their Houses burnt and their Estates lost that this Mons^r Casteine joynd with those northern Indians in burning of severall Towns and destroying severall of the English both Men Women and Children and that he was then actually in Person when Chemnecuda a Town about Twenty Miles above Albany was burnt and cut of in the Night now about three Years since that this Mons^r Casteine was then and therein Person with the French & Indians a great Ringleader in that destruction as by severall that made their escape did report as also Sr Edmond Andros used all his endeavours for the apprehending this Mons^r Casteine and offered considerable Sums of Money to any that would apprehend him since which time this Deponent hath learned nothing of him and this Deponent further saith that he hath seen the said Mons^r Casteine when he was among the Indians at Penobscott fort in one day both in Indian Habit and in Scarlett and this Deponent further saith that the French Man who came into these Parts with the late Indians (as he does suppose) is this Mons^r Casteine

Examined & Sworn this 15th of february

1692 before us

Charles James

Humphrey Hilton

Rob^t Drury