

Nothing upon his own knowledge which being relate ted to the full of what he heard M^r. Philip Sykes fore man of the Grand Jury who told your Honours just if that be all you have to say you may go about your Business upon which your Honours petitioned not In the least reflecting nor thinking of any further Occasion of him. Simply & ignorantly went home af ter which your Honours petitioner being wanted at the Bar in the Trial though he knew nothing mate rial as above of the aforesaid Prisoner your Honours poor petitioner is fined ten pounds Sterd which is more then all his Substance is worth to maintain a wife & two small Children wherefore your Honours petitioner most humbly prays your Honours serious Considera tion as well as the incapacity of your Honours poor Petitioner in understanding the Consequence of the Affair then in hand as also of his Inability of pay ing the said Fine after which Consideration of your Honours your poor and needy Petitioner most humbly prays that your Honours will be pleased to remit the aforesaid Fine

And your Honours poor Petitioner as in duty bound shall Ever pray &c

The petition granted & the Fine remitted according to the prayer of the petitioner

To his Excellency & the honorable Council

The humble petition of Sarah Reynolds Sheweth

That whereas your humble Petitioner have been very much abused by one Thomas Hinton on the Cliff. Your Petitioner had 100 Acres of Land & was in Debt the said Hinton bargained with your Petitioner for the said Land conditionally that he the said Hinton