

and these Authorities by their Majestys in your Court but have always endeavored to demonstrate the contrary as we thought we did in our last. however mistaken if you please to review the Copy of Mr Hanswringens Deposition your Excellency will there find that Coll<sup>o</sup> Piggot was not the only person mentioned but that Mr Fitzhugh was greatly concerned & also Madam Piggot for whom we have that honour as to give credit to her Discourse

Mr Hanswringen has passed his Trial publicly in our Provincial Court where he hath ingeniously confessed the matter of fact charged him with according to the tenor of his Deposition Copy whereof sent your Exc<sup>ty</sup> Your Excellency demands of returning Mr Randolph taken up at the reasonable request of the Magistrates

..... of this Province to one of yours (a prudent & discreet Justice) by virtue of his Writ & cry for several notorious crimes & misdemeanors of very high high Nature committed & done by said Randolph hereagst their Majestys & this Gov<sup>t</sup> are altogether anticipated & prevented by that Miceant Diligent Officer the son of a stable of Accomack in whose custody we understand he was & is detained but we hope your Excellency will de the Officer that pursued him that Justice remand him into his custody from whom..... he made his escape & is thereby become a felon in Order to be brought to a fair & legit<sup>e</sup> trial in time & place most proper & convenient which we conceive to be where the fact was committed whereof we do <sup>not</sup> in the least Doubt & an

Maryland May 6 1693
 Sr Postscript

Your Excellency's most humble servants