

Required his Attendance on Wednesday 23rd June Aug he Replied he would obey their orders he would wait upon them so he swung himself about & said God damn him this was nothing but what he did expect a parcel of Shitten dogs of you & bid him this Deponent go about his Business he would be sure to be there himself the De ponent thereupon told him there was more in it then so for him to go by himself for he this Deponent had receiv'd a warrant which directed him what to do & so shew'd him the warrant which he saw & said he had spoken Nothing but what he had been beaten out of the Depon told him that as he was a Gentleman if he would like a Gentleman submit himself quietly to his Custody he the Deponent would be civil to him otherwise must take him by Force & thereupon Capt him into the Cust ody of Mr Thomas Collier the said Jowles flew out into a Passion & said they had forced him to give bonds & now God damn 'em they would ^{beat him to} make him break his Bonds & when he came down before the Gov^t & Council he would declare what he thought before them all & several other words to that Effect but after some space of time & his heat being over he promised this Depon & said upon the word of a Gent that he would upon their Honours to which the Deponent gave Credit & discharged the said Collier from his further attendance on him & on the day appointed this Deponent went to his house where he met with the said Jowles Wife who told this Deponent the Coll^r was very sick & she was afraid he would dye the Deponent said he must see him she then conveyed him to the Chamber where the said Jowles Lay who told this Deponent he was sorry he was sick & could not go with this Deponent according to his
