

a Troop of Horse Robert Gouldenborough: Ayrat Saw Mr Robt Wylea Merch^t Mr Dominicks Sherman Mr Pope & his Wife with several others..... of the Irish Nation unknown to your dept by name Coll^o Sayer began to discourse of the late Revolution both at home & here & swore God damn him he did admire how that King William being so wise a King as was said^{he} should be ruled by such a damned Cell of Rogues as the Parliament of England was & to come to invade his Fathers right & swore God damn em all for a Company of heathen Pops Especially the Church of England who were the worst of all the Separatists from the Church of Rome & again Swore by God that the Turkish Religion was better then the Protestant Religion & that he had rather see that Religion flourish in England then that damned Protestant Religion that discourse ended Coll^o Sayer took up a Cup of Drink & drank a health to the late Gov^r Nicholson of Virginia & Swore by God he did not question but he would come in Gov^r of Maryland in less then Twelve months whereupon Mr Pope replied she had heard a very good Character of Gov^r Nicholson but that it was not like a Gentleman to circumvent his friend the present Gov^r Copley whereupon the said Sayer bid God damn Gov^r Copley for a Rebel & pitiful Rascal & swore by God that he was sure that Governor Nicholson never had any kindness for such Villains as Copley was adding that the present Govern^t was in a Sanguishing Condition & so drank a health to the sick Gov^r everyone pledging except Mr Gouldenborough who thereupon went out of the Company then
