

saith that he about the beginning of last March past being at Oxford Town at the house of Mr. John Pope in company with Coll. Peter Sayer Mr. Robt Ungle Captain Richardson & Capt. Thomas Benson & some others whose names this Depo<sup>t</sup> cannot at present call to remembrance Coll. Sayer began a discourse concerning the late Revolution both in England & here & said that he did admire that King William being so wise a King as he was reputed to be should be led by such a Damned Crew to invade his Fathers right & sworn that he had rather see the Turkish Religion flourish in England than the Protestant Religion this Depo<sup>t</sup> asked him why so the said Coll. Sayer made him this Depo<sup>t</sup>ment thus answer because they were all of one mind & the protestants were not then the said Sayer said he would lay a wager that Capt. Nicholson was Gov<sup>r</sup> of this Province within a twelve month as all this Depo<sup>t</sup> can remember he going frequently upon some Occasion or other out of the Room

Turat 23 Die July Anno R. Gouldsbrough Dom 1693 coram me

L. Copley

The Deposition of Robert Ungle aged Twenty two Years or thereabouts (viz)

That being in company with Mr. Robert Gouldsbrough Capt. Thomas Benson..... Capt. In Richardson about the beginning of March Coll. Sayer began a Discourse about the late Revolution & said that he admired that King William being so wise a Prince as he was reputed to be should be led by such a Damned