

avowment of his said Excellency. Sir John Capton Esq^r & Mr Blakiston who was the only person with whom he permitted any private conference or imparted secrets to; both of whom did assure us that they had great Reason to suspect such things as are mentioned in the first part of that Letter, & said, that they had several Informations & should in some time get proof of such practices in his said Excellency. Francis Micholson Esq^r as are there mentioned & thereupon the Clerk here by Order as we conceive prepared a Letter for us to sign it was tendered to us & we desired to sign it which we did but never after heard any proof of those Allegations nor any thing more of them but since that upon better acquaintance & knowledge of his Ex^{cellency} Micholson we find the direct contrary principles in him to what was then asserted that he is so far from disaffecting the then & present constitution of Government that it hath been his greatest care & Study to preserve & improve the same by the best measures & means he can

And as to countenancing Papists &c^a we find nothing in him tending that way unless it be his Administering Justice to them where it is due without distinguishing one Sect from another but on the contrary our Journals of Assembly & all other Records make appear & we are assured that none has ever done more by his persuasions Example & Gifts to propagate the Protestant Religion in this province than he

This we thought our selves obliged in Justice to say to your Lordships to vindicate the honour of his
