

Mr. Philip Clark of Maryland County being in Company with the same time said that when the Governor was last in England on his travels naming a place in Yorkshire he kissed a Woman's Countenance a hundred of it

John. Shanks Deposition that when he received a precept upon Mr. Sly which required Special Bail the said Sly refused him & told him Mr. Mason & he would do well enough for that, & refused to give Bail that when Sly last arrived Said Mason ordered the Deponent to bring a Boat to carry him ~~up~~ to Sly and when he came to Sly however Sly said I never Robin & I am glad to be you, be not afraid of the Governor for he would protect him or would to that Effect that sometime in the last month Mr. Philip Clark had the Deponent not be afraid of the Gov<sup>r</sup> as long as he saw him stand and said that the Deponent's father was a Good honest Planter & did believe as good a man as the Governor

Coll<sup>d</sup> Henry Mitchell Deposition that meeting Mr. John Gooden at Mr. Genard's Sly's in Maryland County the said Good therein Company with Mr. Philip Clark & several others did say that he would not have Nicholson take him for such a Fool to stay in Maryland when he might go ~~where~~ where he was safe

Upon which said Depositions & several Informations of the wicked illegal & Disloyal practises used & endeavoured by the said John Good Genard Sly his Son in Law Robert Mason Philip Clark and other his Associates his Majesty's Council at Law to whom the same were referred do find the same are Mutinous