

were Poyson and that it was all one to serve God as the said Poyson said he is but a Poyson Whereupon the said Deposition saying to the said Captain Court also Code I admire to hear such things from you who are I am told are in holy orders your self the said Capt Court also Code thus replied yes I am both a Parson & Priest in the Church of England

September the 22. 1696

The above Deposition was sworn to before his & Council by the above named John Freeman

That Alexander Sumley of Warrinwell Court by Gentlemen being engaged about his own private Business in the City of Ammopolis in the said County one Mr Ridgely did Invite the said Mr Sumley to come unto one Mr Pactor house to drink with him which the said Sumley did accordingly & there met with a person so him the said Sumley then unknown but the said Sumley being accosted by him the said unknown person in an unusual Dialect did inquire of Mr Ridgely what his name was the said Ridgely told him that the said persons name was Cood with the addition of Col. upon which the said Sumley was more attentive to him the said Coods discourse and in a small time afterwards the said Col Cood told the said Sumley that it was pity he should be a papist tho he thought all Religion to be a sham & that there were never such person as Jesus Christ the son of God upon earth whereupon the said Sumley being astonished at the Blasphemy uttered that there were great reasons both internal & external to believe the Divinity of our Saviour & Cited a text out of St Pauls Epistles & then the said