

The Clerk of the above said Mr Robert Hanson the Bond for return he was one of the securitys the said Bond being a Bond of 20000 l. taken for the due Execution of the said masons office and now signed & presented by Mr G. Kinswearingen

And the said Mr Clark being asked who were his Bonds securitys says Mr John Baptista Carbery Mr Facillus Butler & Mr William Sharpam & says they were the best he could get at St Marys County Court

Whereupon it is observed that Mr Carbery is an Irish Roman Catholic & a man of little or no estate & supposed to be much indebted that Mr Fac-lus Butler is a known perjurer & is not known of any visible estate that he has that Mr W^m Sharpam is a person generally supposed to carry all his estate about with him

Mr Clark being again asked if he had given any security upon his last caption upon his Excellen-cys Proclamation & last warrant says he has not therefore is told that it not appearing either from St Marys County Court or the Sheriff of that County that any security was given there for his appearance to answer &c at the next Provincial Court he is again as before required to enter into recognisance otherwise he is to stand committed to the custody of the Sheriff of Ann Arundel County & was accordingly committed

Port of Annapolis
August the 29th 1698

Council. late
Present