

And the Satisfaction of Mr Charles Bafes
 (and County being against Sir T. F. F. F.)

His Excellency is pleased to observe that none of the Propositions affect the said Sir T. F. F. F. except Mr Bafes & tells Mr Bafes that he has heard such a Character of him viz^t that he questioned whether there was a God or not that he can give no credit to him

And his Excellency is further pleased to say that he will not pretend to try the matter but will leave it in the hands of the Kings Lawyers who are ordered to procecut the same

Ordered that Mr M. pay Mr J. an^d C. Price for officiating as sailing Surveyor at the head of the Bay from the 5th of March 1697 to the 24th 10th 1697 twenty two pounds. there being after the rate of 12^s per Annum according to agreement
