

John Coud a fled an a prisoner & who now by a Bill found by the Grand Jury of the Province at the said Provincial Court stands indicted for endeavouring as much as in him lay to excite & stir up his Majesty's loyal people within the Province to rebel against his Majesty's laws & by Law established I do therefore in his Majesty's name by & with the advice & Consent of the honorable his Majesty's Council within this Province publish declare give notice to & Command all his Majesty's loving subjects within this Province that they do for the future forbear to associate converse with her honor's retainers or hold any Correspondence whatsoever with the said John Coud either by writing or otherwise but that they & every of them do endeavour to apprehend & secure the said John Coud when ever he shall attempt to come within this Province as they will answer the Contingent at their peril

And whereas M^r Philip Clark of St Marys County late one of the Attorneys of the provincial Court & one of the Attorneys in St Marys County hath again well behaved himself that for his just deserts he hath rendered himself incapable of practising as an Attorney in any of the said Courts & altogether unserviceable to his Clients yet his Majesty's Justices of the provincial Court considering that several persons depended upon the said Clark to manage their affairs to him committed expecting that he might have been in better Circumstances which knowing otherwise might be a great Surprizeal & Detrim^t to them have consented the several actions wherein he was concerned until the next Provincial Court.....