

Actum sub publico sigillo (auctoritate Parliamentaria parte Edicti de Statutis non omnibus alijs Christi fidelibus cu solemnitate observanda et ceteris et ceteris et ceteris et ceteris et ceteris approbat quatenus in Statutis et ceteris et ceteris et ceteris et ceteris parte de regne Concordimus et Imperium et ceteris et ceteris et ceteris et ceteris 178 Testimoniis sigillis nunc Apposuerunt die tertio Octobris 1698

Frederic Cury

Mr Subman says Mr Cury put his hand to it that he himself put in the date

His Exc^{ty} says he gives Mr Cury no power but as chief of the Vestry

His Exc^{ty} tells Mr Subman that he has heard what he is charged with & gives him an hour or two to make his Answer in defence thereof

Mr Subman says he confesses himself in some respects guilty of what he is accused with but withal says he has no wife in England

The Reverend Mr Benj^{ts} Hobbs & Mr Hugh^{ts} Jones being sent for came & his Excellency is pleased to request them & the rest of the reverend Clergy in Town to take Mr Subman to their chamber & discourse him & give their Opinion for the use of this Board thereon

Then produced & read the following Report of the Rev.
 Mr Benjamin Hobbs and Mr Hugh^{ts} Jones as followeth

We having as by Order Examined Mr George Sub-man Clerk do make our Report to your Excellency & humbly as followeth

He confesses there is a Woman in England whom he owned as his Wife, but wrote to, & rec'd from her Letters under that Denomination & has desired leave to go & fetch her hither