

William Armitage enlisted by Sergeant Richard Welsh for the Kings Service in this State having appeared before the Governor and Council is adjudged by them unfit for Service and therefore is hereby Discharged on his refunding all Expenses accruing on his Enlistment
Monday 9. November 1779

Present as on Saturday

Ordered that the western shore Treasurer pay to John Clarke Sixty eight Pounds twelve shillings and six Pence due him by Account passed by the Depty Aud.

Wm. Sherodine from the Senate inform his Excellency that a sufficient number of members are met to Proceed to Business

W. Hall and Mr. John Hanson from the House of Delegates also inform his Excellency the House of Delegates are ready to proceed to Business