By the Petition of John Smith it appears that he was presented in two Presentments for selling liquor without licence at September Term 1804 in Anne Arundel County Court and fined for the same. The Petitioner states that he sold liquor in the County in September 1803 at an Auction meeting believing he had a right to do so. he having taken out a licence in the City of Annapolis. The Petitioner states that he was entirely ignorant that he was committing a breach of the law. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the said fine.
