

with John McHenry having declined to accept, His Excellency the Governor having first nominated them. —

Thomas Henrix was on the nomination of His Excellency the Governor appointed Armorer at Eastern view (Robert Speeden discontinued). —

George G. Brewer was on the nomination of His Excellency the Governor appointed one of the Notary Public's of the State of Maryland to reside at the City of Annapolis in addition to Richard M. Chase. —

Nathaniel Williams Esquire, was on the nomination of His Excellency the Governor appointed Assistant Attorney General during the continuance of the inability of the Attorney General of Maryland to discharge the duties of his appointment from mental incapacity. —

Thomas Kell Esquire was on the nomination of His Excellency the Governor appointed Assistant District Attorney for Baltimore City Courts during the continuance of the inability of the District Attorney for Baltimore City Courts to discharge the duties of his appointment from mental incapacity.

Justices of the Peace for Baltimore County appointed on the nomination of his Excellency the Governor to wit, George G. Presbury, Job Smith, Robert Gorsuch, Owen Dorsey, Thomas Johnston, Dickson Hensbury, Edward Woodyear, Thomas Hillen, George Ebeaugh, Benjamin Wilson of Langhuen, Henry Trapnall, John H. Barney, Alexander McKim, John Berry, Thomas C. Jenkins, George Warner, Upton Bruce, James Martin, John T. Worthington, Beal Randall, John Kennard, John B. Snowden, Henry Shauk, Peter Galt, John Robb, George Harryman, Sheppard C. Leakins, John Bond Chesnut Ridge, John Murphy, Nathaniel Night, Thomas Bailey, John T. Randal, William H. Murray, Alexis Lemmon Buck River neck, William Peehin Lyman Adams, William R. Gillis, William G. Hands, William Murray of Wheeler, Nathan G. Bryson, Abraham Coal of Abraham, Anthony Miltenberger John Hargrove, (William) Hiltner, John Dougherty Bridge Street, Elisha Johnston, Thomas Rogers, Elias Brown, Stephen A. Moore, Eliza Robertson, (Nelson) son.