By the Petition of Francis Quinn accompanied by a transcript from the Proceedings of Baltimore City Court it appears that he was fined by the said Court at June Term last the sum of ten dollars for assaulting & beating Robert Gott a Constable while in the execution of his duty. - The Petitioner states that a man by the name of Nash had for some offence been committed to custody, by a Justice of the Peace and delivered to the Constable to be carried to Jail, that Nash refused to obey the order of the magistrate and a violent struggle ensued between him and the officers of the Peace who endeavoured to force him into a cart for the purpose of more easily conveying him to prison. That at that time the Petitioner came up and considering that the officers were exercising an unnecessary and unwarrantable degree of cruelty, interfered and endeavoured to rescue him. That no blows or violence were used by the Petitioner, that he is a poor man but lately arrived in this Country, with a wife and children who depend upon his daily labour for support. The Board on considering of the circumstances of the case do on the recommendation of the said Court remit the said fine of ten dollars
