By the Petition of Nicholas King, of Frederick County, accompanied by a Transcript from the Proceedings of the Court of the said County, it appears, that he together with Joshua Ridgely, entered into Recognizance in the sum of eighty dollars, conditioned for the appearance of John Moore, at Frederick County Court, to answer a charge of Bastardy. The Petitioners state that the said Moore did appear at the said Court, and that the then States Attorney Roger Perry, Esquire, was not prepared for trial. That the suit remained on the Docket of the said Court until the last March Term, when the recognizance was declared to be forfeited in consequence of the non appearance of the said Moore. The Board do on the recommendation of the said Court, and on consideration of the circumstances of the case, release the said Nicholas King and Joshua Ridgely from the said forfeiture of eighty dollars.
