the 1st City and March Term 1823 in 4 cases the sum of 16⁰⁰ each case for selling spirituous liquors without license & that he has paid the fines and fees amounting 150 dollars - The Petitioner states that he was fined in three other cases the sum of sixteen dollars in each case at August Term last for selling spirituous liquors without license - The Petitioner further states that all the spirituous liquors for the selling of which he was indicted, in all the cases above mentioned was sold within the space of two months, and that he was not selling altogether without license but had not a license to authorize him to sell in as small quantities as he had sold, and Moreover that the three last cases were for selling three half pints, which were sold by his wife in his absence without his knowledge - The Petitioner states that he is a poor man and in as much as he has already paid a large sum of money for fines and fees he prays that the three last fines may be remitted -
