

Adam Roward, James Mitchell, John P. Hemaker, Samuel Nelson, Benjamin Wilson, Isaac S. Johnson, Robert Gwan Senior, John Bunnoughs, Moses Curnell, Levi Duncan, Elijah Hearse, Johnson Gray, Caleb Morris, Giles Jones, Stephen Sturges, Levin Merrill, John Parker of Kenay, John R. Pitts, James Layton, Edward Round of James, Thomas
Melbourne, Isaac Bredel, Isaac J. Collins, Stephen Roach, Joseph J. Gillisp, Schoolfield
Lambson, Elijah Linn of William, Henry Franklin Senior, Gustavus A. White, Josiah Geaysee, Isaac Holland, John Holland Senior, Levin Conner, John Bishop of William, Isaac Hearse, George Hayward, Thomas R. Handy, Samuel T. Gasey, Michael Murray, George Maddox, Patrick Gasey, Daniel Smith and William T. Wiley as Justices of the Peace for Worcester County -

On the nomination of His Excellency the Governor John Johnson was appointed one of the Commissioners for ascertaining by amicable adjustment the Western and Southern Boundary Lines between this State and Virginia, in the room of General William H. Winder deceased -

On the nomination of His Excellency The Governor James McDougall was appointed a Justice of the Peace for Queen Anne's County, and commission issued to Samuel Bugey, William E. Meconkin, Tristram Thomas, George Palmer, Solomon
Scott, Nathan Baynard, Robert Stevens, Wincent Tschudy, Nicholas M. Hobbs, James Hopkins, Isaac Winchester, Charles G. Barron, John Briggs, Samuel Smith, James R.
Pratt, James Roe, James Baynard, Thomas Hunt, John Beard, Francis A. Rochester, Charles
A. Nicholson, Horatio Roberts, Edward Geypage, Gumbury Barron, Arthur S. Sudder, Chas
Speaks, James Winchester, George Newnam, Eli S. Pardee, James Roberts, John Patrick, Edward H. Gasey, Thomas Roberts, William Jacobs, Joseph Cooke, Robert Eldon, William Wallace, Samuel
Thompson, Edward Subank, John Riebs, James Lubron, Joseph H. Calder, Doctor Thomas J. Lynch